

Abe Feinberg Relates Visit of John Sheehan To Cattle Dealer's Home

Tuttletown Resident Questioned Before May Grand Jury in Newburgh About Pine Bush Bank; Taken Sunday.

SHEEHAN DEALINGS

Feinberg Tells of Business Relations When Sheehan Conducted Brewery Here 4 Years Ago.

Abraham I. Feinberg, 60-year-old Tuttletown cattle dealer, at whose home the Pine Bush Bank bandits are alleged to have stopped, told the May Grand Jury in Newburgh this week, that John Sheehan, suspected finger man in the robbery, who once ran a brewery in Kingston, visited his home about three weeks ago, and admitted that he had business relations with him four years ago when he operated the brewery.

Feinberg was taken as a material witness last Sunday after a raid on his farm by Sergeant John Lockhart of the state police, Deputy Sheriffs Clayton Vredenburg and Arthur Brown of the Ulster county sheriff's office and a detail of four troopers from Orange county under the direction of Sergeant William Hanley.

The Orange county patrol and that under the direction of Sergeant Lockhart joined forces at Ireland Corners, Ulster county, and drove to Tuttletown, surrounding the Feinberg house, where the two missing bank bandits were hiding, according to a tip given the troopers by a truck driver. With guns drawn, the troopers stormed into the front of the house with intentions of driving the bandits out the back way. In the cattle yard behind the house Deputy Vredenburg was waiting with the machine gun to mow them down if they tried to escape. Deputy Brown covered another sector with a rifle, and a third deputy stood ready to shoot gas bombs into the house at the signal from Sergeant Lockhart, who anticipated that the bandits might barricade themselves upstairs.

The tip went awry, however, as the bandits were not at the house, but Feinberg was and he was questioned at length by the troopers. Sergeant Lockhart being aware that he once was implicated in the business called bootlegging. The sergeant said Feinberg once was held by a gang for $800 ransom during the days of illicit beer running, but declined to discuss the story any further.

After talking with Feinberg at length, Sergeants Lockhart and Hanley decided to hold him as a material witness, and the latter took him to Middletown for further questioning and an appearance before the Orange county Grand Jury. What he told the Grand Jury and subsequently to reporters is reported by the Middletown Times Herald as follows:

Dealt With Sheehan

The name of John Sheehan, suspected finger man now held in New York city for questioning frequently in the cattle dealer's discourse Wednesday. Feinberg admitted that he had at one time had business relations with the suspect while Sheehan was operating a brewery at Kingston four years ago. Sheehan visited his place in Tuttletown about three weeks ago, Feinberg said, but the cattle dealer was not at home at the time. His visitor left a note asking the man to visit him in New York. The note was left with Mrs. Martin Wildermoth, wife of the Feinberg farm tenant. The owner occupied only two rooms, up to May first, but after that rented two more from his tenant. Despite his acquisition of more space, he declared yesterday he had told Sheehan about a week before the robbery that he could not take any bandits. He had met Sheehan in New York, he said.

A few days before the robbery a stranger driving a gray LaSalle came to his place with two suitcases. Feinberg continued. The stranger, giving Sheehan's name as a reference, asked if he might leave the bags, which he said he believed contained the weapons used in the hold-up and subsequent battle with police in his apartment. He intended, the stranger explained, to seek another boarding place in that vicinity. Incidentally the gray LaSalle was reported seen in the vicinity of Goshen the day of the bank hold-up. The report came from a Goshen resident yesterday.

May eleventh, the day of the robbery, two automobiles entered the Feinberg farmstead at 2 p. m. They were the LaSalle of the stranger who had brought the hand bags and a Ford roadster. Two men were in the Ford and only one in the LaSalle. The latter got the hand bags from Mr. Feinberg and the two cars drove away in the direction of Pine Bush, twelve miles away.

Mr. Feinberg said a man named "Smitty," a Newburgh truck driver, was at his house that day and the next.

The cattle dealer added that he had taken his night-rack-hodded truck out at 4 o'clock and had started for Pine Bush to buy some calves. On the way he stopped at the Decker's on the Pine Bush-Walden highway where he had a glass of beer and thence drove to the village.

From Pine Bush he drove on the concrete road to Bullville a distance

Roosevelt Again Says He Hopes That Lehman Will Run for Office

Washington, May 22 (AP)—President Roosevelt today reiterated his personal hope that Governor Herbert H. Lehman of New York would reconsider his decision not to run for re-election.

Governor Lehman declined to comment further.

He refused likewise to discuss the prediction of Secretary of State Edward J. Flynn that the state convention would nominate him for a third term and that he would accept the nomination.

The governor's secretary, Walter T. Brown, said messages still poured into the executive offices, today, most of them urging Mr. Lehman to reconsider. Many were from personal friends who expressed the belief that the governor was entitled to a rest after eight years state service, however, Brown said.

Tonight, the governor will leave for New York city for the week-end, but the executive offices said he had no appointment to confer with Postmaster General James A. Farley, national and state Democratic chairman, who is already there for a conference with other party leaders.

Neither was the governor an appointment to see President Roosevelt, who plans to be at Hyde Park over the week-end, a close associate said.

"The governor has not received any invitation to visit the President nor does he expect any," this source reported.

Lehman's Response

Albany, N. Y., May 22 (AP)—President Roosevelt's hope that Governor Lehman would decide to seek a third term, expressed by the President for the second time within 48 hours, brought from the governor today only the comment:

"My statement speaks for itself."

The governor referred to the formal announcement, Wednesday, in which he said he would not be a candidate for re-election.

The statement was made at a press conference after the President had conferred with Edward J. Flynn, secretary of state of New York, and Bronx Democratic leader.

The President said that Lehman, a close friend and political ally, was needed by the state.

Previously Flynn had told reporters he expected the state convention in September to nominate Lehman despite his announcement he would not seek another term.

"Do you think he would accept?" he was asked.

"I think he will run," Flynn replied.

London, May 22 (AP)—Great Britain stepped up its plans for mobilization of the nation's industries in the event of war today after a House of Commons debate emphasized the difficulty of holding the Mediterranean in case of conflict with Italy.

A vast program for facilitating munitions production, speeding up supply of airplanes, protecting the "life-line of the empire" and providing food supplies for the civil population in any future war time began to take shape.

Two major situations apparently were involved in the preparations:

The Italo-Ethiopian, in which Viscount Cranborne, parliamentary under-secretary for foreign affairs, told the House of Commons yesterday the British government "is taking and will take the most energetic steps" to clear up the whereabouts of L. J. Bonner, Red Cross worker, reported arrested at Dire Dawa.

The Palestine-Egypt affairs, in which Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin told Commons Britain would not tolerate foreign interference.

Grand Conferences

Italy's ambassador to Britain, Dino Grandi, conferred late yesterday with Sir Robert G. Van Sittart, permanent under-secretary for foreign affairs, in what authoritative sources said was a general discussion of the Ethiopian situation.

In the Holy Land, where Baldwin said Britain "intends to discharge its responsibilities to the full" under its protectorate, a British policeman was wounded in Arab-Jewish disorders at Jerusalem and troop reinforcements were sent from Egypt.

The government offered subsidization for automobile manufacturers entering the field of airplane production to speed up the supply of much-needed aircraft.

Sir William Beveridge, an expert economist, took over the chairmanship of a sub-committee of the imperial defense committee to arrange for food supplies in the event of war.

The port of London authority in sole charge of the lower Thames—busiest port in the world and Britain's "life-line of supplies"—announced a $60,000,000 program of improvements to be carried out as swiftly as possible.

A cabinet committee was called today to consider how Britain's great battlefleets would stand up under the new conditions arising from the expansion of instruments for aerial warfare.

The Laborite Lieut.-Commander R. T. G. Fletcher told Commons last night an alternate cape route to the Far East should be developed in view of the problems of controlling the Mediterranean which would be raised in any war with Italy.

He pointed out ten submarines in the Mediterranean were capable during the last war of sinking shipping at the rate of 150,000 tons monthly.

Blum to Accept Policy

Paris, May 22 (AP)—Leon Blum, premier-designate of France, was reported semi-officially today as ready to adopt a joint policy with Great Britain, Russia, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, and Rumania in regard to Italy's annexation of Ethiopia and Germany's remilitarization of the Rhineland.

Informal sources said his foreign policy would be patterned after that of his predecessor, namely:

Fidelity to the League of Nations, to alliances, and to military assistance pacts.

Collective security by mutual assistance.

Cooperation with Great Britain on all European questions.

Foreign Minister Nicholas Titulescu of Rumania arrived here today and was received by Leon Blum in an interview at the home of France's prospective premier.

Blum also received Emile Borel, president of the Federation of League of Nations Associations.

Special police measures have been taken to hold back crowds which have gathered in increasing numbers recently outside the home of the Socialist Party leader whose leftist "peace front" won a majority in the incoming chamber of deputies.

Railmen Charge

Geneva, May 22 (AP)—Italy charged anew today that the squabbling Ethiopians used dynamite bullets supposedly made in Britain.

The League of Nations published a lengthy, illustrated communication to the Italian government. It alleged several thousand of the so-called mutilating bullets were found on prisoners captured in the north by Marshal Rodolfo Krauss, and that they were so marked as to make it reasonable to suppose they came from British firms.

"Early in the week, the British foreign secretary, Anthony Eden, charged before the house of com-

Boston Servant Is Held After Fierce Struggle In Air With Plane Pilot

Sue Lino, 20, To Be Detained by Psychopathic Hospital for 10 Days; Tried to Jump From Ship.

DIZZY DIVES

Pilot Sutherland Seized Girl by Hair, Came Out of Dive, Made Safe Landing.

Boston, May 22 (AP)—A young woman who was alleged to have attempted to leap from an airplane yesterday and was restrained by the pilot in a furious struggle, was identified today, psychopathic hospital authorities said, as Sue Lino, 20, a Boston domestic.

Dr. Riley H. Guthrie, executive physician of the hospital, said the girl had admitted her identity this morning and explained she was employed in the household of a Boston attorney.

Dr. Guthrie said the girl is in a state of "extreme mental depression" and would be held at the hospital 10 days for observation.

Yesterday was the girl's afternoon off and she went to the airport where she engaged an airplane, ostensibly for a sightseeing flight.

The pilot, Charles W. Sutherland, said the girl appeared upset, that he reduced his altitude from 10,000 to 3,000 feet and that then she threw off her helmet and goggles and began to climb from the rear cockpit.

He said he seized her by the hair. During the succeeding minutes, while the plane dipped and climbed crazily, once almost striking the harbor water, Pilot Sutherland said he held her with one hand while, half standing, he guided the ship to a landing at the airport.

A police hunt through the files of missing persons in several cities at first proved fruitless. The reason for her desperate attempt at death remained unknown.

Sutherland Shaken

Shaken from his experience, Sutherland, veteran pilot for Intercontinental Airlines, brought his plane to a perfect landing at East Boston Airport yesterday one hand grasping the ship's "stick," the other entwined in the curly, chestnut locks of his passenger's bobbed hair.

Airport attaches, answering Sutherland's cries for aid, held the woman, about 24 years old, until police arrived.

At police headquarters Capt. William D. Donovan said her only response to questions was:

"Just give me a gun."

The young woman who had hired the plane, was seated in the rear cockpit while at the controls, separated from her by nearly a yard, sat the 23-year-old pilot.

Clutched Girl's Hair

"Suddenly," he related, "I glanced back and saw her standing half-out of the plane, one foot on a wing, the other just inside the cockpit. She had ripped off her goggles and her helmet. Her hair was blowing free. That came in handy later—it gave me something to hang onto."

Sutherland said he stood, half-crouching, then twisted, reached back and grabbed the girl by her hair and threw her back into the cockpit.

The pilot declared the woman struggled and twisted and scratched in an effort to get free. "She battled," he asserted, "like a wildcat."

"I let go her hair. Hit her over the head about three minutes worth. Then I looked down. We were diving toward the sea. We must have been going 185 miles an hour."

"I shot in the throttle—full speed—and leveled off. The ship was not more than 10 feet from the water. Then we started home."

Fifteen minutes later Sutherland arrived at the field.

He brought his ship down while half-standing.

"Toughest experience I ever had," he said.

Textile Satisfaction

Washington, May 22—Textile interests expressed satisfaction today over the president's proclamation raising tariff walls in an effort to halt a sharp increase in shipments of cotton cloth from Japan to this country.

President Roosevelt acted after the tariff commission reported importations of Japanese cotton goods rose rapidly during the first quarter of this year following failure to effect a "gentlemen's agreement" with the island empire to restrict cotton textile exports to the United States.

4 Admit Black Legion Killing of WPA Worker For Beating His Wife

Secret Society's Members, Group for Americanism and Social Decency, Confess Slaying of C. A. Poole; Wife in Hospital.

16 OFFICERS HELD

Bizarre Tale of Organization Meeting and Confused Dash of Cars to "Execution" Related.

Detroit, May 22 (AP)—Police Inspector John I. Navarre announced today that four men, admittedly members of the "Black Legion," a secret society, had confessed they participated in the "execution" of Charles A. Poole, found shot to death May 13 on Guley road in Dearborn township.

Inspector Navarre said 16 officers of the society, who used black robes and hoods bearing skulls and crossbones in their ritual, were held for questioning. He said the four men who confessed told him Poole was not a member of the society but had been slain after he was accused of beating his wife, who was in maternity hospital at the time of the slaying.

The inspector said the men told him eight bullets were fired into Poole's body as he crouched before the leader of the group, who had told him "Poole, you have beaten up your wife for the last time."

The body was found slumped at the side of the pavement, the empty cartridges beside it.

Police at first believed it might be the body of a "Gang" victim. Fingerprints, transmitted to Washington by the Associated Press wirephoto, were identified by the division of investigation as those of Poole, who had been arrested for vagrancy several years ago in Kansas.

Poole Identified

Women relatives later identified the body. Poole recently had been employed as a WPA worker.

Navarre said the men held for investigation told him the principles of the Black Legion are 100 per cent Americanism, clean politics, anti-Communism, and the good behavior of members.

A meeting of some 50 members of the society was called the night of May 12," the inspector said, "after two relatives of Poole had told them that Poole had kicked his wife several times and broken her ribs."

"One of the men under arrest asked the members what should be done about Poole, and someone shouted: 'Let's take him out and beat him up.' Another shouted: 'Let's kill him!'"

Navarre said the meeting broke up in confusion after several men had responded to the call for volunteers to bring Poole to the meeting hall. This they did by a ruse, he said, and a cavalcade of automobiles then started for the scene of the "execution."

"At the Rouge river bridge the cavalcade found the bridge up, and in the confusion the line of cars broke up and many of their drivers got lost," Navarre said he had learned.

"Only two cars finally reached the spot selected for the slaying."

Two Fired Shots

The seven men who arrived with Poole each took a drink, the inspector said, and two of them then fired shots into Poole's body at close range.

Statements were taken from the 16 men by John A. Rice, assistant prosecutor, who said he would confer today with Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea concerning the action to be taken in the case.

Existence of the Black Legion in this area was disclosed last summer with the arrest of three men at Adrian on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. The three had repaid of the organization in their car, and admitted to officers that they had attended meetings of the Black Legion near Adrian.

Senate Group Recants on Day-Old Compromise Plan For Taxing Corporations

Proclamation Issued For Poppy Day Saturday

Saturday is Poppy Day in Kingston and Mayor C. J. Heiselman today issued the following proclamation:

Proclamation

Let us forget. The poppy since the World War has been worn on Memorial Day by the people of the United States to symbolize the supreme sacrifices made by our armed forces in the service of our country, and Let us forget.

The American Legion, the American Legion Auxiliary and the Veterans of Foreign Wars will again this year offer for sale to the citizens of Kingston this flower of beautiful sentiment and sacred and reverent memory, and Let us forget.

These poppies are made by the thin white fingers of disabled veterans still languishing in government hospitals, and Let us forget.

The proceeds of the local poppy sale will be devoted to the welfare and relief of disabled and destitute World War veterans and their families, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans.

Therefore, I, Conrad J. Heiselman, Mayor of the City of Kingston, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 23, 1936, Poppy Day, and urge the public support and cooperation which it so richly deserves, and call upon all citizens to wear a poppy on Memorial Day—Let us forget.

CONRAD J. HEISELMAN, Mayor.

"Chain Store" Racket Was Luciano's Desire, Witness Says Today

New York, May 22 (AP)—Charles (Lucky) Luciano, a witness sworn in Supreme Court today, once expressed the desire to operate New York's $12,000,000 vice racket as chain groceries are run.

The witness, 29-year-old "Coke" Brown, a madame and sweetheart of James Frederico, henchman of Luciano, was recalled to the stand by Special Rackets Prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey at the trial of Luciano, Frederico and eight others on charges of compulsory prostitution.

She was the second person to link Luciano definitely with the wholesale operation of disorderly houses in the metropolis. She swore she attended several conferences of Luciano, Frederico, "Little Davie" Bettino and "Tommy Bull" Pennocchio, at which the vice business was openly discussed in her presence.

Last October, Miss Brown said, Luciano complained the business was bad, and expressed fears the Dewey investigation would imperil their safety. Speaking further of business conditions she said, Luciano told others he had thought of putting the business on a chain grocery store basis, hiring madames and paying them salaries outright, instead of letting them operate independently with girls booked through the syndicate.

On second thought, however, Luciano thought it might not work out as well, Miss Brown said.

Luciano, she said, frequently complained about things and appeared disgusted with his affairs. Once he said some of the houses "were getting tough." Another time when he was informed a certain madame was unwilling to pay the $10 a week "bonding" money for each girl in her employ, Luciano said, "we'll take care of her."

At another meeting Luciano was told by his henchmen that certain bookers of women were "holding out," whereupon, after some discussion, he announced he would bring them all "downtown and put them on the carpet."

THE REVENUE YIELD FROM THE COMPROMISE

The revenue yield from the compromise was variously estimated at $500,000,000 to $600,000,000, whereas President Roosevelt wants $425,000,000.

Today some committeemen were casting about for additional means of revenue. Having turned down the idea of boosting the normal individual income tax rate from 4 per cent to 5 per cent, they were taking of raising the surtax on incomes ranging between $18,000 to $20,000. There was no indication, however, as to whether this would be done.

Trip For Roosevelt

Washington, May 22 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today he probably would leave Washington for his Arkansas-Texas-Indiana trip, but that he would be unable to go to Canada on the same tour. He will return to Washington Monday evening or Tuesday morning.

Barbers to Strike

New York, May 22 (AP)—A strike of 6,000 Manhattan barbers will be called for next Tuesday, it was announced today by Anthony Merino, 26, a barbers' union official.

The strike will be confined in the financial area and will include virtually every shop in lower Manhattan, the union official pointed out. Barbers in the Times Square district already on strike, are demanding a minimum wage of $22 a week, and a company of light tanks. The reinforcements, which other recent reinforcements, bring the total British military strength to 3,500.

FLASHES OF LIFE SKETCHED IN BRIEF

A Reminder of the Days When "Albany Beef" Was Plentiful

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 22 (AP).—Howard Cashdollar, of The Oaks and Ernest Ackman, of Poughkeepsie, exhibited a 312 pound sturgeon today and told a thrilling story of a two hour battle with the fish in the Hudson river here.

Local river men said the sturgeon was the largest fish taken from this section of the Hudson in years. It measures eight feet, four inches in length.

Cashdollar and Ackman said they netted the river monster while fishing for shad yesterday. As they sought to draw the catch in, they said, the fish put up a terrific struggle, towing their little open boat 300 yards.

After getting the sturgeon into the boat, the two fishermen killed it with a club and then rowed quickly to shore.

A game warden claimed the head and sent it to the conservation department for analysis to determine the age of the fish.

Cashdollar and Ackman said they would cut their catch up into choice steaks.

"Albany Beef" Was Plentiful.

It is not such a great many years ago that these big fish, known locally as "Albany Beef", were no rarity and many large ones were brought in by the fishermen at Rondout and Port Ewen. Eight-footers are comparatively rare nowadays, however, although many smaller ones are taken. It was reported only a week or so ago that one of the local fishermen had captured a sturgeon that weighed around 100 pounds and that it had been sold to Rand, the Ellenville fish dealer.

Lyman Ellsworth, night jailer at the county jail, has a picture, taken when he was a lad, showing one of the huge fish drawn up on shore near Port Ewen, with a group of fishermen of that day standing about. As near as can be judged the fish shown in the picture is about the size of the one just reported caught near Poughkeepsie.

Nothing is more sensitive than the old-fashioned sweet girl graduate except the stock market.

MEALS OFTEN FAIL TO GIVE NEEDED INTERNAL EXERCISE

ALL-BRAN Relieves Common Constipation

Meals that are low in "bulk" are a common failing of the average American diet. Frequently, these meals result in irregular habits.

Constipation due to insufficient "bulk" is often a consequence. This condition causes discomfort, and may lead to headaches and loss of appetite. Even serious disease may develop.

Banish the danger of a diet low in "bulk" by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly. This delicious cereal is an abundant source of gentle "bulk."

Within the body, it absorbs moisture and forms a soft mass, which stimulates and strengthens intestinal muscles, and cleanses the system. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamins B and contains iron.

Two tablespoons daily, with milk or cream, are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

How much pleasure to enjoy this natural food in place of pills and drugs. Serve ALL-BRAN in some form each day, either as a cereal, or cooked into muffins, breads, etc. Eat it regularly for regular habits.

ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Governor Extends State Milk Campaign

Albany, N. Y., May 22 (AP).—Governor Lehman signed the Hallowell bill extending New York state's "drink more milk" campaign to April 1, 1937, today and criticized the Legislature for reducing the appropriation from $400,000 to $250,000.

"It seems to me," he commented, "that if it has been of value and help to producers of milk to advertise milk and milk products, the scope of such campaign should not have been reduced. Last year and the year before, the state projected its advertising campaign on $400,000."

Eight other bills became law under the governor's signature, bringing to 615 the number enacted since January 1.

The governor signed the Hall bill authorizing submission to the people at the November election of the question: "Shall there be a convention to revise the constitution and amend the same?"

"There is a difference of opinion as to whether the provisions of the constitution with respect to submitting the question to the people is self-executing," the governor said in a memorandum.

"To remove any doubt, I believe this bill directing by legislative enactment that such a question be presented to the people should be signed and become law."

After the Legislature approved the measure, Attorney General John J. Bennett, Jr., said in a requested opinion that submission of the question is mandatory under the state constitution.

The bill provides the method for the election of delegates in 1937, should the people favor a convention. The latter would be held in April, 1938.

Chicago Judge Gives 64 Sentences to "Stop Murder on the Streets"

Chicago, May 22 (AP).—Sixty-four jail sentences for reckless drivers today measured the severity of Municipal Judge Gibson E. Gorman's campaign to "stop murder on the streets."

The jurist has sent 64 men, convicted of careless driving or driving while intoxicated, to the Bridewell or county jail since he took charge of the safety court on May 4. The terms ranged from three days to six months. The penalties were meted out to violators from all strata of society.

More than 30 of the prisoners are still in cells and Judge Gorman declared:

"There will be no letup in drastic punishment until sane driving prevails."

The heaviest sentence—six months—was imposed on Henry Jameson, 50, charged with leaving the scene of an accident in which two persons had been injured.

Events Around The Empire State

Buffalo, N. Y., May 22 (AP).—When William Stahl, 67, went to his orchard in the town of Boston to kill himself yesterday, he took a length of rope and a pistol.

Medical Examiner Francis M. Kujawa said Stahl, who had been ill, tried to hang himself from an apple tree but the rope broke. He then fired a bullet into his head. The body was found with the noose around his neck.

Geneva, N. Y., May 22 (AP).—Prof. Fred Carlton Stewart, retiring after 41 years service as botanist at the state agricultural experiment station here, today looked forward to completing his work on his hobby for many years, a study of fungi of the Adirondacks.

Professor Stewart, author of numerous scientific articles, with Mrs. Stewart last night was guest of honor at a reception given by associates at the station.

Rochester, N. Y., May 22 (AP).—A one man jury is sitting in a case in federal court here.

Attorneys on both sides in a suit by 27 laborers seeking alleged unpaid wages from the Morley Construction Company of Kansas City and the Maryland Casualty Company of Baltimore for work on the U. S. Veterans Hospital at Bataavia asked for a jury trial and agreed to accept a directed verdict from Judge William W. Rippey. The jury was asked so an appeal might be taken. Judge Rippey named Raymond J. Cannon, court attendant, to serve as the jury.

Argyle, N. Y., May 22 (AP).—A turtle on which Halsey B. Piester carved his initials more than a quarter of a century ago was found recently by Harold Story here. Story said the turtle bore plainly the letters "HBP" and the dates 1906 and 1909. Piester said the turtle he branded 30 years ago fitted easily onto the palm of his hand. The one found by Story measured eight by six inches.

Blue Mountain Lake, N. Y., May 22 (AP).—Five hundred Mallard ducks, recently released on Lake Durant by the Conservation Department, have become the pets of a CCC camp on the lake. The ducks, whose wings are clipped, speed across the water at the CCC boys' call to accept dainties from the camp kitchen.

It's our family's whiskey, neighbor — and neighbor, it's your price!

Each bottle of our Family's Whiskey is as like as those 2 chicks!

NEVER in all the years Dad and us worked together did Dad quit jogging us up as to how the only thing of any account was watching that every barrel of whiskey turned out just as tasty as the barrel before it. Dad had that way about him—never set up over his own 44 years of distilling experience, but prouder of us boys and our Family's Whiskey than any of his own doing.

So you can understand how there couldn't ever anything come up that would stop us making each batch of The Wilken Family Whiskey stuck up in every particular to what Dad and everybody has always expected of it.

Religionists Start Rat Plague When Gandhi Permits Killing

Ahmedabad, India (AP)—A campaign to loose as many rats as possible in the new sewers of Ahmedabad is being organized by a religious sect here—as a protest against a decision by Mahatma Gandhi that rats may be killed in the interests of human welfare.

The Ahmedabad municipal board debated lengthily whether rat catching should be treated as unjustifiable violence, and against the code of ethics preached by Gandhi. The opinion of Gandhi was asked.

"Violence of this type, such as the killing of flies and mosquitoes, is daily committed by all of us," replied Gandhi.

"This service, while theoretically wrong and against my life principle of non-violence, can not be called destructive, as it is for human welfare. I therefore give you indulgence and permit you to go on killing rats."

His reply created a sensation among the Jains, who will not kill ever flies, and the campaign of placing rats in the sewers was announced.

One very religious objector has announced he will pay half a dozen men $25 a month to serve as human "food supplies" for fleas and mosquitoes. These men, he has explained, will be placed in a small room—with fleas and mosquitoes as companions—and must promise to let the insects bite to their hearts content.

"THEATRE OF MODERN LIVING" AT EXPOSITION

One of the outstanding features of the fifteenth annual women's national exposition of arts and industries which will be held at Grand Central Palace, New York, from May 23 to 29, inclusive, will be the "Theatre of Modern Living" sponsored by Rex Cole, Inc., according to M. Reina, local dealer of General Electric home appliances. In this theatre will be shown General Electric Company's elaborate romantic motion picture, "Three Women," a full length technicolor sound production starring Johnny Mack Brown, Sheila Mann, Hedda Hopper, Bert Roach and William Collier, Sr.

Appearing as hostess at the theatre will be Miss Nell M. Snavely, home service director of Rex Cole, Inc., assisted by Sally Ambrose, director domestic science bureau of the New York Edison Company, Inc.; Caroline Cecil, director home service department of Bronx Gas and Electric Company; Florence Freer, director domestic science bureau of Brooklyn Edison Company, Inc.; Cecile Harvey, director home service department of Westchester Lighting Company; Ada Bessie Swann, director home service center of Woman's Home Companion.

SAMSONVILLE

Samsonville, May 22—Harry Keator is building a porch on his bungalow.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Jeff have named their daughter, Lillian Agnes.

Mrs. Mary Moore and granddaughter, Edith Allen, and Mrs. Noah Barringer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Chambers of Union Grove.

Mrs. Don Van Etten visited her daughter, Mrs. George Alsdorf, of Walden from Wednesday until Sunday. While there she attended the mother and daughter banquet given by the Blue Bird Sunday school class, of which Mrs. Alsdorf is a member. Also attended a reception for the Rev. William B. Reed and wife, former pastor of Samsonville. This is Mr. Reed's second year as pastor of Walden M. E. Church. Mr. Reed and wife were given a hearty welcome by his many friends. He was presented with a purse of $150. Refreshments were served.

Hazel Barringer is working in Accord.

Otis Barringer is having a well driven on the school grounds.

Alfred Barringer of Tilton spent Sunday at his home.

Claim First Typewriter

A document purporting to prove that an Italian rather than an American invented the typewriter has been brought to light at Turin, Italy.

The newly found document is a report published in 1834 by a weekly magazine of Turin called the Universal Theater which relates how Prof. Celestino Gullit, a professor of languages in London at the time, invented the first typewriter during the year.

Spanish Horses First

Fossil finds which have been unearthed on the plateau of Bogota, in Colombia, S. A., furnish new proof that while the modern horse was brought to American shores by the Spanish conquistadors, it had inhabited the Western hemisphere for thousands of years previous to the Spanish conquest and become extinct.

EVERYTHING FOR EVERYBODY

Right Care Now Saves Wardrobe

Ithaca, N. Y., May 22—Clothing worth keeping should be placed where it can have proper care during the hot summer months, says Grace H. Griswold of the New York state college of agriculture. Before garments are put away for the summer, they should be thoroughly brushed and shaken, and hung in the air and sun.

Garment bags, when used, should be free from moths at the start, and should be absolutely tight, she advises. The clothing which goes into the bags should also be free from moths.

Trunks and wooden chests will hold several blankets, dresses, suits, and overcoats. Fold these carefully, and lay them in until the trunk is full. On top, place a bag of paradichlorobenzene. One quarter of a pound at about 15 or 20 cents from the local druggist will last for two or three months, even in hot summer months. When it is gone, take out the bag and refill it.

Do not tie the string too tightly on the bag, else the crystals will not evaporate properly, Miss Griswold says. The crystals may also be scattered among the garments if desired.

Naphthalene is another good substance to use in packing away woolens and furs. Flake naphthalene kills eggs and larvae of clothes moths in a trunk or chest, but it takes about two or three weeks. If clothes are stored for many months, both naphthalene and paradichlorobenzene may be used.

An expensive fur coat is safest in cold storage. In addition, it will probably be insured against fire and theft.

Miss Griswold says cedar chests are not always reliable, though moths rarely, if ever, enter a properly made chest. To be effective, the chest should be made of the reddish heart wood, for this contains the volatile cedar oil that goes the work. But even when made of heart wood, the chests will not kill eggs and larvae of clothes moths. Articles should be free from the moths before they are placed in the chest.

St. John's Will Be A Banner Fair

While the big outdoor fair to be held on the premises of St. John's Church on Albany avenue is being specifically called "a pastoral," it will be more than that, it will be a banner fair, and will be held on Tuesday, June 2, and Wednesday, June 3, beginning Tuesday noon and continuing through both evenings.

Tuesday evening's Freeman told of the things that will be sold at the fair. Those in charge have been careful to choose as their articles for sale such as will not cause the fair to enter into competition with the merchants of our city.

In the field alongside St. John's Church close to its east walls will be staged the simple setting of the fair which is under the direction of Mrs. Gerritt Van Schaick Quackenbush. It will be very like the rustic poet's scene one would have found at a shepherd's fair in the long ago, a shepherd's pipe, a ballad sung; costumes telling the tales of old tapestries; "wishing" and bewitching; jesters, knights, Robinhood and his men, an armorer at his anvil. And the birds will be there in the trees singing as of yore, and the children, the dolls from Europe and America, and the string stakes and "Bald Venture," the winner of the derby in the form of a weather-vane, all waiting to be bought for someone's home.

Besides there will be goodies and two mimic horses to ride with heraldic heads as well as Pegasus. Bellerophon's magic steed, and a herald with his trumpet and a crew of pirates from the "Jolly Roger."

Last and best will be the heraldic banners. Over each stall will float one of the banners, each banner depicting in color the lineage and achievement of a feudal lord. These emblems are castles, towers, a runner with his bells and a message from the king.

Closely copying the earliest emblems and devices of armor known in England (brought there by William the Conqueror) and divided on the lozenge shaped banner, each banner floating over a stall, will be found to be riveted and designed as though by an armorer of those early days of heraldry.

On six of the banners there will be found a shield at the bottom with a silhouette of his heraldic lion, in some one of his proper positions: rampant; regardant passant; sejant; stant; rampant (after Mlle. Heald); salient. One will find the "Fees" the one bar of blue across the shield. The heraldic oak leaf and acorn adorn the banners. On one banner will be seen a shield charged with two dolphins argent (silver) and turrets, argent, arising from a wealth of leaves according to a rule of heraldry, and a portcullis at the tower gate.

On another banner will be seen two heraldic swans, supporters "proper" (which means, painted naturally), membered and beaked gules (red); "membered" meaning that the two legs are not in the same position and "gules" being old French for red. The swans are supporters of a shield charged with dolphins, proper (painted naturally). Never having been seen before, these marvelous banners, examples of the earliest English banners, will have to be seen at the fair to be even half appreciated.

Pierrot will be at the fair to guide one to the banners, that will give a glimpse of the world of the armorer of old and his great science of the past and present.

They will be worth going far to see, and the destined site will be St. John's fair on Albany avenue.

$2,500,000 Is Given To Job Insurance

Albany, N. Y., May 22 (P).—Glenn A. Bowers, director of the job insurance division of the state labor department, said today that 40,000 employers have contributed $2,500,000 to the state unemployment insurance fund for the first quarter of 1936.

If the present rate of contributions continues, Bowers added, the division's preliminary estimates of annual yield for the fund "will not be far wide of actual receipts."

Under the state unemployment insurance law, any employer of at least four persons during 12 weeks a year is required to contribute one per cent of his payroll the first year, providing the employee does not receive more than $2,500 a year or $30 a week.

Contributions to date, Bowers said, indicate an average payment of $20 per month per employer on an average payroll of approximately $25,000 a year. Contributions to the fund are expected to reach $30,000,000 annually after 1938 when the tax increases to three per cent.

Only contributions up to May 1 have been tabulated. Payments from many firms are yet to be counted, those firms having taken advantage of the extension of the deadline from May 1 to May 15. Bowers said the funds have been deposited in the New York unemployment insurance fund, to be held in trust for payment of benefits to eligible unemployed wage earners after January 1, 1938.

Pangborn Plots Another Assault On Around World Flight Record

Clyde Pangborn, whose 39 years have been filled with adventure, makes ready for an effort to better the around the world flight record of the late Wiley Post.

By E. H. TIPTON

Burbank, Calif. (P).—Unassuming Clyde Pangborn, his hands grimy with grease from the motor of his "flying wing" plane, is busily preparing for an attempt to smash two world speed records.

Pangborn, whose 39 years have been packed with daring adventure, hopes to follow a flight from the United States to Moscow, in June, with an around the world non-stop hop which will better the record of the late Wiley Post.

He is hopeful of obtaining a robot pilot for his attack on the 5,657-mile flight to Moscow.

"I have to fly to Moscow anyway to arrange for refueling my ship for the non-stop flight around the world," he said.

Plans Faster Refueling

Pangborn is confident he can cut three hours off the around the world record of 7 days, 18 hours, 49 minutes set by the late Wiley Post.

"Post lost a lot of time on the ground. If I can arrange to get fast Russian bombing planes to help me refuel, I'll lose not more than four hours each in the two times I will take gasoline while flying."

Has Circled Globe

A flight around the world in 1931 with Hugh Herndon, New York sportsman-aviator, brought trouble when the others were accused of making air photographs in Japan. Delayed there about two months, they ended their world jaunt by flying non-stop to Wentaichee.

In 1934 Pangborn and Col. Roscoe Turner won second prize in the London-Neibourne air race.

Pangborn expects to begin his Moscow flight from Dallas, Tex., or Daytona Beach, Fla.

The 15,000-mile around the world effort must wait until next year now, because of weather conditions, he said. If satisfactory refueling arrangements are made he now plans to use a Burnelli plane, otherwise he may use the flying wing.

Leopold Gilding in England.

Sandwich, Eng., May 22 (P).—The mysterious visit of King Leopold III of the Belgians to England resolved today into a series of fast rounds of golf. Most inhabitants of this sleepy sea-side town became convinced the sole object of the ruler, whose arrival set diplomatic circles abuzz with rumors, was to crowd in as much golf as he could each day—and he was doing a good job of it.

The Kansas federation of women's clubs has assisted 1,800 girls in continuing education since establishing a fund 31 years ago.

Brawny U. S. Penitentiary Guard Wins Prisoners With His Poetry

John S. Madden, lieutenant of guards at Atlanta federal prison, has written more than 500 poems. He gets the greatest satisfaction from the praise of his wards behind the bars.

Atlanta, Ga. (AP)—When his bread-winning labors at the United States penitentiary are finished, John S. Madden, lieutenant of guards at the institution, likes to steal away home to write poetry.

Tall and athletically built, Madden, through the medium of a column he writes regularly for an Atlanta newspaper, is known as one of Georgia's most prolific writers of verse.

He has acquired another large literary following by reason of his frequent contributions to "Good Words," a pamphlet printed monthly largely by and for penitentiary inmates. The booklet also goes into the homes of prisoners—scattered throughout the United States—and is read by a large number of their relatives.

Madden says he frequently gets letters expressing appreciation of his work from members of the families of prisoners and from the inmates themselves.

"That, perhaps, is the greatest satisfaction I derive from my literary endeavors," he said.

The poet-guard says his position is no handicap from a literary standpoint, but that the prison locale—with its varied types of character—often is a source of inspiration for a poem.

Madden has written more than 500 poems, most of which have been introduced by a summary in prose. "I never re-write a poem," he declares. "And actual composing time of a work usually is about an hour."

SCHOOL DAYS EDEN PROMISED DANES IN EXPERTS' PLAN

Copenhagen (AP)—A school boys' paradise in the atmosphere of advanced learning is proposed by a Danish government committee appointed three years ago to study the reorganization of public schools.

Text books would be abolished for the last three years of "middle-school" education for children over 12, under the committee's plan.

Instead of assigning a daily lesson, the teacher would select a topic on which he would lead the students for investigation outside the classroom.

The old frames of education would be broken down in favor of a "free" method with object lesson excursions into the fields of chemistry, physics, science, geography, history, economics and so on.

The report recommends also that more stress be laid on handicraft and gymnastics. School kitchens and gardens are suggested. Athletic training and instruction in hygiene would be given wider scope.

JUDICIAL REFORMS FOLLOW BUDGET IN FILIPINO PLAN

Manila (AP)—President Manuel L. Quezon of the Philippine Commonwealth has taken another step in his reorganization program by naming a judicial commission.

The next step is expected to involve the judicial setup. A new court of appeals has already been organized and the president, it is expected, will next tackle the question of justice of the peace courts.

President Quezon has two plans under consideration. One would change the justice courts to circuit courts with jurisdiction over two or three municipalities. The other would eliminate the justice courts entirely and create district courts.

Under the latter plan violations of local ordinances would be handled by municipal police courts.

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, May 21.—Mrs. Joseph Stadt has returned to her home after spending some time with relatives in Beacon.

Mrs. John Holliday is attending the Sons and Daughters of Liberty Convention being held at Schenectady this week at the Van Curler Hotel.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. Thoburn Legg were in New York, Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Legg visited her sister, Miss Jean Harris, who is a student at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn while the Rev. Mr. Legg attended part of the Centennial celebration of the Union Theological Seminary, of which he is an alumnus.

Miss Rose Holton of Utica was a week-end guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Potter.

Mrs. Lillian Smith was a week-end visitor at the home of her brother, Louis Beeres, and family in Kingston.

The following Epworth League officers were recently elected for the ensuing year: President, Harriet Clark; first vice-president, William Clark; second vice-president, Raymond Semon; third vice-president, Betty Tinney; fourth vice-presidents, Mary and Wilson Tinney; secretary, Shirley Fowler; treasurer, Lillian Leitching. The officers will be installed at the service on Sunday morning, May 31.

Mrs. A. E. Stadt of Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. F. Boyce and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. T. Burns and daughter of Beacon were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stadt.

The men of the Methodist Episcopal Church and congregation are asked to give as much of their time as they can to the work of painting the church. Work was begun Monday and progressed very well. The committee in charge is composed of H. H. Vincent, chairman; Vinal Le Fever and John Lynn. Anyone is welcome to assist in this work in his spare time.

Plans are being made for the annual Memorial Day parade in Port Ewen. The line of march to the cemetery will be led by the Port Ewen Firemen's Life, Drum and Bugle Corps. The various organizations and schools are invited. A suitable program will be given at the cemetery. Let us all plan to be present Saturday morning, May 30. Further announcements as to the hour and the program will be made.

Mrs. Martin Schleele is attending the Rebekah Lodge Convention at Saranac Lake this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Freer of New Salem attended the Miller-Britt wedding Sunday evening. Mrs. Freer is a sister of Mr. Miller.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church entertained the Luther League of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer Tuesday evening. At the worship service the Rev. Russell S. Gaenzle gave a most interesting address after which recreation and refreshments were enjoyed, thus bringing to a close an enjoyable evening. Little Edith Terwilliger and Sonny Short are ill of measles.

The public is invited to attend the card party in St. Leo's hall Friday evening under the auspices of the ladies' of the Church of the Presentation.

Conductor Eddy Duchin has gone in for bowling. He and the missus (Marjorie Oelrichs) are regular attendants at the alleys.

Only $730
—and winning fame as the smoothest EIGHT in the world

The 1936 De Luxe Eight 4-Door Sedan, 1936

For thrills, thrift and smartness—

no EIGHT on earth like the new Pontiac

EXPERTS call Pontiac the smoothest eight in the world. And here's why: Pontiac's extra-heavy, short-stroke crankshaft is buttressed by overlapping bearings. The harmonic balancer, introduced by Pontiac, works miracles. And all moving parts are balanced with incredible precision. The result is something new in eight-cylinder history—an engine with no vibration point at any speed!

That's genuine fine-car engineering and it's matched by everything else in the car. You can't get better brakes than Pontiac's big hydraulics. The solid steel "Turret-Top" Bodies are the safest money can buy. And this big eight has delivered, under official supervision, 22 miles per gallon. Look around before you buy your eight. Get all the facts. You'll come back to Pontiac convinced that it's the best buy of them all!

VEEDOL'S make-good offer
as made by all Veedol dealers

Here's our Veedol dealer make-good offer: If you buy a Veedol motor oil with the correct grade of Veedol motor oil, and if you drive your car 10 days, and if you don't like it, we'll make good. Simply call your Veedol dealer and we'll make good. No money back. No hassle. No fuss. Just a new Veedol motor oil. We'll provide all the oil you need. We'll provide all the oil you need. We'll provide all the oil you need.

WHAT an oil! No wonder Veedol is "the talk of the town". What an offer! No wonder motorists and dealers alike demand it be continued. For here's the first motor oil that dares to say "I'll give you a thrill, or foot the bill!"

Don't miss this chance to change your old worn oil to fresh clean Veedol without the risk of a single penny. If Veedol, in 10 short days, doesn't put a new thrill in your driving... a new lift in your motor... name your oil and your crankcase will be refilled at no expense to you.

Veedol will prove itself in your motor as it has in the famous "Graf Zeppelin"... the giant new "Hindenburg"... and with Admiral Byrd at the North and South Poles. No other oil can match Veedol in quality or match its fair and square "Make-Good Offer".

William Sapp Badly Injured in a Fall

William Sapp of 44 East Pierpont street is in the Benedictine Hospital with two broken ankles and other injuries sustained in a fall from a scaffold while busy at work painting the exterior of St. Peter's Church about 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. According to the police report one end of the scaffolding gave way and Mr. Sapp was thrown from the scaffold to the pavement below, a distance of about 25 feet. Another man who was working with him escaped injury when he grasped a rope and saved himself from falling. The police department was called and Conner's ambulance rushed the injured man to the hospital where his condition today was reported as fair. He is under the care of Dr. Saul Ritchie.

DELINQUENT DOG OWNERS ARE SUMMONED TO COURT

City Marshal John J. Costello is busy serving summons on dog owners who have neglected to obtain licenses for their dogs. The summons are returnable by May 29. There are approximately 700 unlicensed dogs in the city. Dog licenses for this year were due the first of January.

Politics at Random

By BYRON PRICE
(Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

MOST of its proceedings already have been prearranged, but the Democratic national convention may find one question still wide open: How far should the party platform go in criticism of the courts, and in asking for a new judicial deal?

Under-the-surface discussion of that subject has developed a wide range of opinion without pointing the way to a solution. It seems certain that many conflicting viewpoints will be presented to the platform-builders.

No one professes to know just what course will be favored by Mr. Roosevelt, in whose hands control of the convention is expected to rest.

In one respect, at least, the supreme court's invalidation of the Guffey coal control act strikes deeper into New Deal philosophy than did the NRA decision.

The court now has held that neither the interstate commerce clause of the constitution nor the taxing power may be used to do what the administration wants to do about wages and hours.

May Reach Convention

WHAT is left? Is it possible to find some other means which the courts will accept? Some administration attorneys think so, but no one has suggested exactly what it is.

A year has elapsed since the President suggested that the NRA decision, in all of its implications, meant a turning back to the "horse and buggy days."

Several months have passed since Secretary Wallace referred to one feature of the AAA decision as constituting a "legalized steal."

During the interim most administration leaders have been saying little but thinking much. Only sporadic public criticisms of the courts have disclosed how deep was the feeling of disappointment among those who embrace the political philosophy of the New Deal.

But all the time the fire has been burning. It would be very strange if the heat of it did not reach the Philadelphia convention.

Some Roosevelt men would like to see the party propose directly a constitutional amendment broadening the powers of the federal government over such matters as wages, hours of labor, prices, and agricultural production.

Others suggest that unanimous action should be required to invalidate a law by a supreme court decision. Some would be content if the party merely reaffirmed its faith in the validity of the measures which the highest court has overthrown, and then threw in a few pungent references to current judicial practices and tendencies.

Lends Dramatic Value

OF COURSE it still is possible that these divergent views may be compromised in private, and little heard of them on the floor of the convention.

Few politicians believe a constitutional amendment will be embodied in the platform, but few are able to see how the convention can remain entirely silent on the subject.

NRA, AAA and the other enactments rejected by the court have been very prominent parts of the administration program. It would be contrary to all precedent to ignore them in the platform; and if they are mentioned at all, it would be the natural thing to say something in defense of them. That would recall at once what the supreme court said in condemnation of them.

The whole question is wrapped in complications. Its decision may involve the one major element of suspense in a convention whose nominees and most of whose platform seem well determined beforehand.

Farm and Home Bureaus

Arriory Council Meeting
The Advisory Council of the Ulster County Home Bureau held its meeting in the Rochester Reformed Church, in Accord, May 19. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Frank Black, county chairman of the Home Bureau, at 11 a. m., followed by the roll call and the reports of community chairmen. There were 104 members present. Thirteen chairmen made their reports. Mrs. C. M. Ducker reported the Flatbush unit has a library of 25 books; they are going to begin an interesting reading course, through the courtesy of Mrs. Howard Lewis and they made dress forms, took the course on consumer buying and "Let's Have Fewer Colds," closing with a demonstration luncheon.

Mrs. Clyde Hutton reported that Kingston city had sent a delegate, Mrs. Margaret Bertrand, to Farm and Home Week at Ithaca, raising the money by giving luncheons; they took the courses on landscaping, remodeling and the restyling of hats, remodeling clothing, children's clothing and consumer buying. They made dress forms and did considerable metal work in copper and German silver. They also were interested in home nursing and mental fitness.

Mrs. Hubert Brink reported that Lake Katrine had a course in "Understanding Each Other," millinery and copper work; they had kitchen conferences.

Mrs. Edgar M. Clarke, Jr., reported for the Milton unit that they had taken work in "Let's Have Fewer Colds" and participated in making children's clothing. So many of the women in this unit are busy with the packing of fruit that they have devised a new way of doing their educational work. Exhibits were shown in store windows on foods and children's clothing for several weeks during the spring.

Mrs. Wygant Courter, Sr., reported that Modena started the year with a picnic, many went to New Paltz to hear Mrs. Tobey on the trend of styles in clothing; they took the course in millinery, remodelled clothing and took the work on "Let's Have Fewer Colds." Quite regularly they attended recreational community meetings alternating between Clintondale and Modena, led by Mrs. Allhusen.

Mrs. John Dederick reported that Mt. Marion has had an interesting beginning with work on consumer buying and Understanding Each Other. This unit has only been organized very recently.

Mrs. Mason Grant reported that Napanoch had a very busy year with metal work in the fall followed by a full program in crafts, with consumer buying in the winter months and the landscaping program is in the process this spring.

Mrs. Harry Weap reported that Rosendale had a very satisfactory year taking the course "Let's Have Fewer Colds," millinery, clothing and landscaping.

Mrs. R. B. Webster reported that Shandaken had given a play in August; the proceeds were $94.45. A flower show netted them $18.64; $15.00 of this was donated and they raised $15.00 by the sale of food and flowers. Their courses were keeping mentally fit, consumer buying, remodeling clothing and children's clothing.

Mrs. Floyd Merriweather reported that Shokan made decorative center pieces and bouquets, met with Miss Morehouse on "Bringing the Wardrobe up to Date," did metal craft work and were all more vitamin A conscious, due to the course of "Let's Have Fewer Colds." Mrs. Jenkins has made them library conscious and they started a library; their neighborly cooperation project was repairing furniture.

Mrs. Joseph W. Pratt reported for Stone Ridge that they had a busy and instructive winter.

Mrs. DeWitt Crowell reported that Wallkill took civics, block printing, landscaping, Christmas decorations and had a kitchen conference, and also took consumer buying.

Napanoch had the largest number of members present, followed by Modena and Kingston.

Mrs. C. H. Weidner, as county secretary, read the minutes and a summary of the various activities undertaken by the different units. Grooming, clothing construction, entertainment and parties, food preparation, table setting and decorations, home nursing, consumer buying, metal craft, block printing, stitichery, psychology, mental health, civics and personal grooming. Great interest was shown in landscape gardening.

Mrs. Black stressed the need of raising funds by teas, luncheons, card parties or food sales for financing the expenses of leaders to the various instruction classes held by the specialists as the expense of travel and lunches often deters some women from becoming local leaders.

Next Miss Everette Parsons, county home demonstration agent, addressed the meeting giving the result of requests from the program planning meetings. The outstanding number of votes are for clothing, grooming, study of humans, called "Understanding Each Other," color and design as it relates to the home, attractive table settings, entertainment and hospitality, efficient planning for spending time and energy and money. These requests will be organized into courses with the help of the specialists who will hold local leader training schools next year. Each member will be sent information on each for next year. She will tell how much time and money she will have to invest and what she can expect to get out of each course. After consideration of these details she will be given an opportunity to select as many courses as she chooses. Miss Parsons stressed the fact that although plans are really the key to which we plan our program for the coming year, we must always be looking ahead to see the questions we are asking. Each member is called on to accept the responsibility of helping to make the program through the year by reporting to the officers of the unit anything she has seen on the program.

Miss Frederick Bond gave a report of the District Federation meeting at Troy, N. Y., May 6 and 7, after which the meeting adjourned for luncheon.

The ladies of the Accord Reformed Church cooked and served a delicious dinner for the Home Bureau members which was heartily enjoyed by all.

The tables and church were beautifully decorated with flowers by the Napanoch unit and Miss Bertha Coona was responsible for the dinner arrangements. After dinner the meeting was again called to order and we all enjoyed the Home Bureau songs and reciting our Creed.

Clarence Schoonmaker, general secretary of the Kingston Y. M. C. A., who was one of the guests of honor, gave a very interesting talk on "Recreation and What It Means to Us." He told some humorous stories and stressed the great need of teaching our young people as well as ourselves the proper use of leisure time as there would be even more time on our hands due to the increased use of machinery. For instance, 250,000 cotton pickers are to be replaced by machinery. The ever increasing use of machinery on farms as well as in factories with the constantly decreasing use of man power is a problem. If we were back in a peak year there would only be about 80 per cent of the labor employed due to this mechanization. Recreation steps in here. We must make intelligent use of this leisure time. We must cooperate with others in giving and taking. In learning to get along with our neighbors.

What shall we turn to in order that we may get real satisfaction out of life? Hobbies are one answer. Some people work happily at gardening, cooking, knitting or sewing; others take to woodworking or metal craft, music or literature. One is urged to show our community spirit by helping to improve conditions in our communities such as seeing that the swimming pools and boats and parks are safe and clean and properly supervised, etc.

Another one of the guests of honor, Mrs. Martha Eddy, administrative specialist, from Cornell University, addressed the meeting and stressed the importance of the profession of homemaking, and child raising and the necessary preparation for this complicated work. She said that homemakers do the most important piece of work in the world and that their jobs involve information in many professions. She emphasized that young girls are much interested in getting married and having homes of their own and that the older homemakers can help bring this preparation about individually or in classes organized especially for this age group.

Then Mrs. Eliza Keates Young told about her trip to Washington and her stay at the White House to prepare for the Associated County Women of the World meeting to be held in Washington the first week in June. She hoped as many women as possible would avail themselves of this privilege with its lectures, dinners and tea at the White House. The meeting then adjourned.

She said that homemakers do the most important piece of work in the world and that their jobs involve information in many professions. She emphasized that young girls are much interested in getting married and having homes of their own and that the older homemakers can help bring this preparation about individually or in classes organized especially for this age group.

Then Mrs. Eliza Keates Young told about her trip to Washington and her stay at the White House to prepare for the Associated County Women of the World meeting to be held in Washington the first week in June. She hoped as many women as possible would avail themselves of this privilege with its lectures, dinners and tea at the White House. The meeting then adjourned.

of the District Federation meeting at Troy, N. Y., May 6 and 7, after which the meeting adjourned for luncheon.

The ladies of the Accord Reformed Church cooked and served a delicious dinner for the Home Bureau members which was heartily enjoyed by all.

The tables and church were beautifully decorated with flowers by the Napanoch unit and Miss Bertha Coona was responsible for the dinner arrangements. After dinner the meeting was again called to order and we all enjoyed the Home Bureau songs and reciting our Creed.

DEBUTANTE TURNS SAILOR

Old seamen voiced salty displeasure when Louise Kimball (above), 22-year-old Boston debutante, signed on as purser aboard the steamer Westport. A graduate nurse, the girl was picked from 200 applicants, Captain John R. Peterson said, "because she's rugged, brainy and trained in life saving and first aid." (Associated Press Photo)

MODES OF THE MOMENT

Sunny days call for brims and lighter hats to be worn with sheer frocks. "In between" brims that shelter the face and shade the eyes, but are not large enough to be classed as dressy cartwheels, are favored for long flowing chiffons, neis or laces of the semi-formal variety. The two hats pictured here use fine toyo straw and are trimmed in a tailored manner, even though one uses chiffon and the other kid for the trimming medium. The natural color toyo hat at top with its medium sized brim uses saddle brown kid for effective trimming around the crown, pert bow and brim edge. This is a very sporty model and also comes in white with contrasting color kid trim. White toyo is used for the other hat with two-toned chiffon giving it a touch of color—navy on one side and saddle brown on the other. Some very interesting color schemes can be worked out in a trimming of this kind, to harmonize or contrast with one's costume.

MARIAN MARTIN STRESSES FEMINITY FOR A DAINY WARM WEATHER FROCK

PATTERN 9890

It seems that girls will be girls this summer—especially when it comes to afternoon frocks. And most welcome is their demand for femininity in clothes, for you'll agree that it's hard to find anything more flattering than soft lines or dainty frills. In this festive model, Marian Martin adopts a double tier of ruffles in place of sleeves, adds a fetching V-yoke, graceful flares in skirt, and presto—you're as delightful a new frock as ever you'll see! It's as easily and quickly made as that, too, for the pattern is so simple to follow that you can cut and fit it in no time at all. For this cool warm weather charmer—soft chiffon, voile, printed silk or crepe is just perfect, and any ray cotton is good. Complete. Discontinued. Marian Martin Sew Chart included.

Pattern 9890 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 36 requires 34 yards 35 inch fabric. Send FIFTEEN CENTS, coins or stamps (coins preferred), for EACH MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, THE STYLE NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern. STATE SIZE OF PATTERN. Be sure to order our MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN BOOK and we how to trace every summer occasion with smart, appropriate costumes. Models shown include the latest in children's clothing, sportswear, designs—even a whole lot of frills. Summer fabric and necessary notions, too. Send for this book now! BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS FOR BOTH. WHEN ORDERED TOGETHER. Send your order to Kingston Daily Freeman Pattern Department, 123 W. 12th Street, New York, N. Y.

STRANDED FRENCH SHIP

IRKS DANISH CUSTOMS

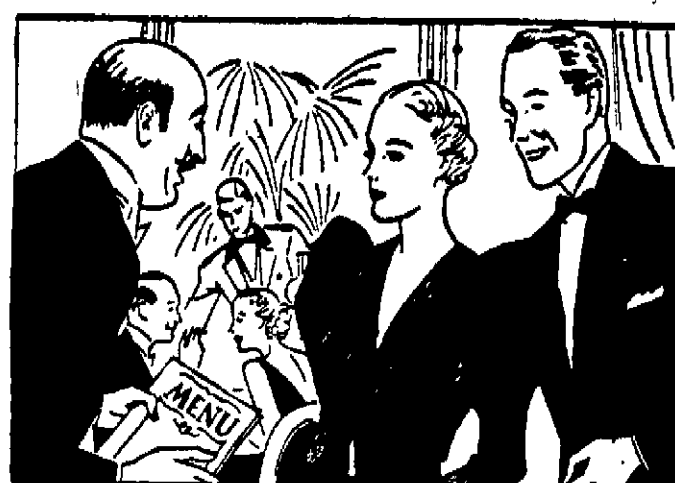

Copenhagen (AP)—For more than six months the French steamer Adrar, 6,000 tons, has rested on dry land, with full crew on board, awaiting a spring flood to take it out to sea again.

Thrown ashore at the island of Sylt by a heavy gale last October, the ship has now sunk deep into the sands.

A long ladder permits the crew to "go ashore" for water. Provisions are sent regularly from France raising the question with the customs authorities whether the craft is part of the island or is foreign ship territory.

The Democrats are making quite a lot of noise because the Republicans have set up a Brain Trust. But the Republicans may have wanted to show them what a ridiculous thing one is, when you are far enough away to get a good look at it.

GOOD MANNERS IN PUBLIC

Restaurant etiquette! Should you check the coats? Who follows first behind the head waiter, Bob or Lucy? Who goes first if there is no head waiter? Who orders dinner? What a flustered feeling you can work up when dining in public, if you don't know the answers. Lucy follows the head waiter, of course, and Bob would lead the way if there were no head waiter. Bob checks his coat at the door, Lucy keeps her. Either the waiter or Bob helps her off with her wrap and pulls out her chair. Bob orders the dinner, after consulting his guest to find out her choice from the menu. She will not give her dinner order directly to the waiter, nor will she embarrass Bob by choosing either the cheapest or the most expensive dinner.

How comforting it is to feel sure of oneself on these important little trifles! Then it doesn't seem as though a spotlight were beating down upon your perspiring brow every time you appear in public. It's amazing how even experienced people may be weak on some point of etiquette. Our 40-page booklet, Etiquette For Every Day, warns of slips and tells how to avoid them. Written for our every-day American life, not for the problems of grand dukes and duchesses. Entertaining, simple, helpful.

Send 15c for our booklet, Etiquette For Every Day, to Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Institute, 109 West 19th Street, New York, N. Y. Write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Autos Cut Polish Income Tax
Warsaw (AP)—Polish income taxpayers will benefit by an exemption of $1,900 from their assessable incomes if they become automobile owners between now and January, 1938. The allowance is made to stimulate motorization of the country.

HOME PICNIC MEALS
ADD FOOD VARIETY

There are times when the family, particularly children, weary of the usual round of meals. Why not have a picnic supper in the home? Hard boiled eggs, frankfurters, potato salad fixed carefully and garnished with some chopped yellow of eggs, and a dessert of fruit, or cheese and biscuit are suggested.

TERA Eases Hudson Relief Situation

Hudson, N. Y., May 22 (AP)—The Temporary Emergency Relief Administration eased the relief situation in this financially distressed city today by increasing staple food allowances to nearly 1,000 needy now without financial aid from the city.

State officials, however, said no arrangements had been completed for use of the state army for housing families if and when dispossession actions are started by landlords. The city has notified house owners it will no longer be responsible for rentals of persons on relief.

Mayor Fred Wheeler, meanwhile, said he was prepared to move emergency cases into the armory. Adjutant-General W. G. Robinson, in Albany, in charge of state armories, said the procedure to be followed would be a request to Governor Lehman for use of the building. General Robinson said no such request had been referred to him.

Hanson Derby Heads West

Albany, N. Y., May 22 (AP)—The MacFadden health hikers headed westward today with one, M. C. Borror of Rome, Ohio, threatening to quit not because of blisters, blisters or bad feet, but "kidding". The 57 other walkers, curious about a blue shirt he has worn, have discovered that he is a letter carrier spending his two weeks' vacation walking.

YOUNG RECEIVES GOLD MEDAL

Owen D. Young is shown as the gold medal of the Society of Arts and Sciences was presented to him in New York for his work "in the cause of improved international good-will." An Open Letter to the Man Who Wants to Have His Own Business.

WITHIN a radius of 40 miles of the city of Kingston, in the area served by the Ulster County Roofing Company, are 160,000 homes. The years of depression have left thousands and thousands of these homes in need of repairs—new roofs, new sidewalks, gutters, paint, insulation.

Some home owners have already begun to make these improvements and as a result building material prices are going up. More important is the fact that today thousands more can be assisted, under the terms of the Federal Housing Act, to make all necessary improvements on their properties now before building prices go still higher.

An automobile manufacturer knows that the more cars he can sell the lower his costs per car. On the same principle the Ulster County Roofing Company believes that by increasing its selling efforts and thereby increasing its volume, quality home improvements can be afforded at a lower cost per home. Therefore we announce a new selling policy—a profit-sharing plan that will set you up in business right in your own neighborhood without any investment on your part.

Definite territories are now being assigned. Previous specialty or building materials sales experience will be helpful but is not essential. A complete course of instruction and every assistance will be afforded the men selected.

Write stating previous experience and references or call in person at our office tomorrow at 10 a. m. Please do not telephone.

If you like the song a sweet motor sings or the cataract of power that's never under strain—set a date when we can get together and let's have some fun!

We want you to thrill to the quiet rhythm of the ablest straight-eight engine in the world—the valve-in-head straight-eight in these Buicks of ours!

We want you to feel the way a Buick minds your touch on the treadle, your hand on the wheel, your foot on the brake.

We want you to send it romping up a hill—and learn what it means to have a car that always has "plenty left in reserve."

We want you to pretend for an hour that you own a Buick—and see for yourself how it feeds your appetite for obedient action like no other car you ever wheeled through traffic!

No, we don't want to sell you—we want you to sell yourself! We'll figure out for you how little it will cost you to own one—that's information every well-informed car owner ought to have.

But mostly we want you to get acquainted with these Buicks—to know from driving one why everybody agrees Buick's the buy!

If you've wanted thrills—power-thrill, comfort-thrill, style-thrill—give us a chance to show you what a Buick will do. How about setting the date now?

A smart local cook and practical dietitian says when we go to the table we need the first helping. We take the second because it tastes good. The third, she insists, is a plain case of being a hog.

Eraser are the nice things! Of that there is no doubt. We write wrong words. A few quick swipes—and big mistakes fade out.

And you will find erasers, of a very different kind. Extremely helpful, if you will try to bear these facts in mind. When you bump someone in a crowd, and almost knock her down, a soft "I'm sorry" will bring smiles and rub out that old frown. Apologies, invariably, obliterate mistakes. And three small words, "I love you," can erase the worst heartaches.

A young man proposed to a girl. She accepted him. He folded her in his arms and said: "Young man—Darling, is this the first time you have ever been loved?" Girl (sighing)—Yes, but it's so nice I hope it won't be the last.

A friend suggests that this column advise vacationists to go to a hotel or resort because vacationing with friends isn't what it is cracked up to be. He says you always feel conscious of the extra work you give them and you don't feel comfortable, adding that it might cost more at a hotel, but you won't have to say: "No, I've got enough" when you're still hungry and you won't have to jump out of bed when you've still got a couple of hours sleep in your system, and you won't have to think all of the time, "Are we still welcome?"

Little Chap—We're going to have a baby at our house today.

Visitor—A boy baby? How do you know you're going to have a boy baby, my dear?

Little Chap—Last year when mother was sick we had a girl baby, now daddy's sick.

Some of us can remember "way back when" depressions were blamed on people who had money stuck in mattresses and old tin cans.

Wife—Darling, I always hit my fingers when I go to drive a nail isn't there some way I can prevent this?

Darling—Yes, you should hold the hammer in both hands.

He had never had such a tough time in his life. First he got angina pectoris, followed by arterio-sclerosis. Just as he was recovering from these he got pneumonia, followed by pulmonary phthisis and tuberculosis. Somehow he got over them just in time to get appendicitis, to say nothing of pyorrhea. All in all, he never knew how he pulled through it. It was the hardest spelling test he'd even seen.

Some girls can break old friends much faster than they can make new ones.

Husband—It certainly is true that money talks.

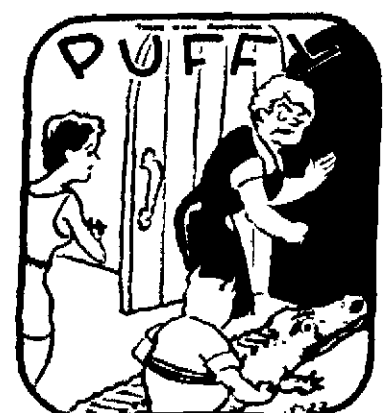

Wife—Well, I do wish you would leave some here to talk to me during the day.

Every boy likes school, for he knows that without school he wouldn't get any vacation.

Somebody is always doing what somebody else said couldn't be done.

With Italy's proclamation of sovereignty over Ethiopia, the latest independent kingdom in Africa seems to have passed into the limbo of history.

"This beast is my friend," Puffy says. "His name's Thomas." "He's crank and really won't harm you, I promise." "Why, ME?" cried the lady. "He couldn't do THAT." "Why? You just afraid he'd scratch by my cat."

PREVIEWED

Today

Broadway: "The Golden Arrow." Betty Davis, considered the finest actress on the screen for 1935, shows her wares in this Michael Arlen story that concerns one of the world's wealthiest girls. It seems true love is a commodity she receives very little of because all the swains pressing for her hand are really interested in her money. And then along comes a young, poor, but honest newspaper reporter who cares neither for her money, her charm or anything about her. She immediately falls in love with him much to his disgust. A new angle enters the picture when it is revealed that the girl is a bluff herself, a front for a large cosmetics concern. The picture gently ribs society and has a good time in general. Miss Davis is competent in the role of the pseudo-heiress and her cast includes George Brent, Eugene Pallette, Carol Hughes, Dick Foran, Catherine Doucet, Ivan Lebedeff and Rafael Storm.

Kingston: "Farmer in the Dell" and "Call of the Prairie." What occurs when an average family falls under the spell of Hollywood and the movies is cleverly pictured in the "Farmer in the Dell," with Fred Stone, Jean Parker, Frank Albertson and Moroni Olsen in the main assignments. "Call of the Prairie" is the latest of the Hopalong Cassidy series of western thrill dramas with Bill Boyd and Jimmie Ellison again featured. These Cassidy pictures are about the best and most intelligent of the present day western plays and the excitement runs high, wide and handsome.

Orpheum: "My Marriage" and "Toll of the Desert." Two different type films are to be seen at the Orpheum, the first a study in modern day matrimony with an over-dose of melodrama tossed in for good measure and the brightest part of the show is the engaging performance of the lovely Claire Trevor. The second picture is one of those brutal plays of western lawlessness with Fred Kohler, Jr., heading the cast of players.

Broadway: "Captain January." The ace of the child actors plays her most sympathetic role in the story now showing at the Broadway, a saga of the sea wherein a rusty old lighthouse keeper rescues a little girl and keeps her with him without the formality of adoption papers. With Shirley Temple in the stellar role and surrounded by a talented cast of players including Guy Kibbee, Slim Summerville, June Lang, Buddy Ebsen and June Darwell, the picture is a combination of laughs, tears and homespun simplicity, plus the vocal and dancing efforts of the little star. Directed by David Butler and based on a story by Laura E. Richards, the drama is well played, produced and acted. Three songs were written expressly for Miss Temple during the action by Lew Pollack and Sidney D. Mitchell. Lovable entertainment that should appeal to both adults and children.

Kingston: "Sutter's Gold" and "Silly Billies." Edward Arnold strides through the more serious of the pictures on the uptown double feature bill in the title role of Sutter, the legendary figure who proved a veritable Midas of his day. A costume picture, it moved thrillingly through his life and destiny in grim and entertaining fashion. "Silly Billies" brings the lunatic Wheeler and Woolsey in their latest comedy venture, a story of the days of the covered wagon with the pair fighting Indians and doing all manner of antics for the enjoyment of their audience. Fred Guoll directed and others in the cast are Dorothy Lee, Harry Woods, Chief Thunderbird, Delmar Watson and Richard Alexander. Orpheum: Same.

Dr. White to Speak At Fairlawn Meeting

Dr. Robert C. White, president of the Robert C. White Chemical Company, manufacturers of Socko insecticide, will be a speaker at a merchandising meeting of Fairlawn Stores of the Kingston Division next Monday evening at the Hotel Statler, commencing at 8 o'clock. This meeting will be for the benefit of Fairlawn members and clerks from the 41 stores of the Kingston Division. The talk to be given by Dr. White should be of great interest to all members and their employees. He is president of the Penn. A. C. of Philadelphia and is controller of the city of Philadelphia, a position which pays a salary of $10,000 annually. At the time of the NEA Dr. White was one of the few men in the country to be selected to formulate a code for insecticide manufacturers. He maintains his own laboratories and is a manufacturer member of M. J. A. Manufacturers' Jobbers Association, the parent organization of Fairlawn Stores Association. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

MARLBOROUGH

Marlborough, May 22—Mrs. Emma Quick, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leon Mason, in Poughkeepsie, has returned to her home here.

The Misses Katherine Dowd and Winifred Belwick spent the week-end in New York city.

Miss Milada Jarussek and Miss Ruth Ruckoff of New York city and Mrs. Elizabeth R. Hendee of Newburgh were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Plank.

Arthur Griener, Jr., six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griener of West Marlborough, is in St. Luke's Hospital, Newburgh, suffering from double mastoiditis following measles and pneumonia. He is under the care of Dr. Birt L. Browning.

Word has been received from Wilbur J. Haviland, who is on a cruise to the West Indies, that he has reached St. Thomas in the West Indies.

Richard Moore, while chopping wood one day last week, was struck by a small sliver of steel from the axe which imbedded itself in a vein in his arm. Dr. Harris was called and gave anti-tetanus inoculation, as a precaution.

Miss Maude Harcourt entertained a number of ladies last Tuesday evening at bridge.

Ralph Lockwood of Woodridge, N. J., a former local resident, and well known here, will enter Vassar Hospital in Poughkeepsie as an interne in July. Mr. Lockwood is graduating from Albany Medical College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lockwood and was born in Marlborough and is a graduate of the local high school. His sister is Mrs. John Manion, Jr.

The ball game played in Milton on Sunday between the Milton freemen and the Marlborough team, was a victory for Marlborough with a score of 13-2.

The government supply store in town was closed last week by orders received from WPA headquarters. As a result, Edward Ward, who has been in charge of the store, was thrown out of employment. A new revision of plans is being made in Washington, D. C. Under these plans the WPA will no longer handle government surplus commodities of any type.

Piccard Experiments with New Type Balloon

Minneapolis, May 22 (AP)—A transparent balloon, unlike any other meteorological apparatus now in vogue because of its resistance to bending today, engaged the attention of Prof. Jean Piccard, pioneer stratosphere balloonist.

In his laboratory at the University of Minnesota, Prof. Piccard expects to complete next month a bag composed of the material similar to that used in wrapping cigarettes, to aid in his study of stratosphere conditions.

The principal advantage, he pointed out, will be in durability. The scientist said balloons employed by the U. S. weather bureau are elastic and explode at certain altitudes. Instruments are returned by parachute.

The hydrogen bag designed by the Belgian scientist would descend in fact with its apparatus and, he calculates, achieve a higher altitude because of its transparency.

The unmanned Piccard balloon will be 30 feet high and have a 15-foot diameter. It will be open on the bottom to permit gas expansion at higher altitude pressures. At a given point, according to his calculations, the bag will slowly descend.

Although moths have been known when they are hungry to eat eggs, flour and sugar, they really desire wool, fur, feathers and hair.

TILLSON

Tillson, May 21—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bedford and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Craig of Ithaca spent the week-end with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Bedford were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Demarest and Mr. and Mrs. Craig by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark. They were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Merrihue, Sunday.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emerick were the Rev. A. B. Jamison and wife of Durham, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. George M. Brewer of Spring Valley and Richard Emerick, wife and children of Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Craig and Mr. and Mrs. Ada Craig spent Sunday at Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weeks and mother called on Mrs. Elias Terwilliger Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Ter-williger's many friends are glad to know her health is very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Dippel and son of New York city have moved into their home purchased of Mrs. Baum. Mrs. Dippel is a sister of Mrs. Sigrist of Tillson.

Mrs. Peter Deyo and Mrs. I. P. Emerick attended the missionary meeting at Rosendale Reformed Church last week Wednesday. Those attending the meeting were from High Falls, Bloomingtown, Tillson and Rosendale. Mrs. Kuyper, a missionary to Japan, gave a very interesting talk on her work after which tea and cake were served by the Rosendale ladies.

Mary Terwilliger spent the week-end with her mother returning to Mohonk Sunday afternoon.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid at Arbiter of France.

Paris, May 22 (AP)—Col. Francois De La Roque, the "man on horseback" of France's nationalist movement, declared today he intended to be "arbiter of France"—as distinct from a dictator. "I do not think that a dictatorship would suit the spirit of our country," he said.

'Foil Blockade' Germans Told By Army Leaders

Search for "ersatz," or substitutes for raw materials not produced in Germany, goes on apace in the Reich as a war preparedness and economic measure. The young chemists pictured here are being trained as industrial investigators.

By M. K. WHITELEATHER

Berlin (AP)—Germany is seeking to make herself blockade-proof, regardless of cost.

Bitter suffering from the British net thrown around her in the World War has spurred civil and military activity toward organizing the nation beforehand to live a long while on its own resources.

An intensive campaign has been waged for three years by the Nazis to find substitutes for products, especially raw materials, which Germany lacks and must therefore buy abroad, and to stimulate exploitation of the country's own natural resources.

Army men are beginning to doubt the wisdom of some measures already taken. A preparedness plan embracing the nation's whole life is under way and army men wonder if it was wise to begin exploitation of Germany's scant few mineral resources when these might better be saved for war-time when their purchase abroad might be impossible.

Mine Closing Suggested

They want to adjust and direct Germany's peace-time economy as well as social life toward upholding the army at the front.

The Nazi government, with subsidies, has speeded up operation of copper mines in Mansfeld, zinc and lead mines in Upper Silesia and iron ore veins in Siegerland. Ordinarily, experts say, these mines can not be profitable.

The army says they ought not to be operated at all. At any rate, the army would slow down their exploitation and buy from abroad during peaceful years.

"Our existing iron-ore," says Major Hesse, one of many writers on the subject, "as far as that of the highest value is concerned, would be exhausted in a few decades if we covered our normal peace-time needs out of domestic supplies."

Army Asks "Long View"

"The same is true for copper, of which there is still less, and a number of other metals."

"The experience of the World War has drawn sufficient attention to the difficulties in case of a blockade. These probably will be even greater in a future war because the need for iron, copper, zinc, and tin has become greater."

Major Hesse says the soldier demands a long view of the nation's economic possibilities although he recognizes Germany's present difficulties in the foreign trade held. The government is putting forth every effort to sell German goods abroad in order to gain foreign exchange for purchases.

Reflecting the increased demand for metals in modern war machinery, Germany's consumption of aluminum jumped so fast since she began rebuilding her army that she now is the greatest aluminum producer and user in the world. She outstrips the United States in both.

The hunt for "ersatz" or substitutes, has proven costly. Many plants have been erected to manufacture fibers to replace cotton and wool, while artificial rubber and various sorts of synthetic gasoline are on the market.

Substitutes' Prices Soar

All cost more than the natural products. Gasoline, for example, costs four times more.

One of the latest "ersatz" is soap made from coal. A factory has been started in Essen to manufacture this.

The German Dye Trust has also found a synthetic soap which it calls "Igepon." Germany is especially hard up for good soap for she lacks fats and oils from which to make it.

On the food front, an "Erzeugungsschlacht" (production battle) has been one of the principal objects of the blockade-proof struggle. Under it farmers either are encouraged or told to plant more of this and that and less of something else in order to fill the nation's needs with an eye to a blockade. Big propaganda campaigns are carried on to show how much more fodder and cereals had been grown within the past season or how many more hogs raised.

DANZIG JOBLESS LIST CUT AS GERMANY ARMS

Danzig (AP)—Germany's rearmament has had a good effect upon the Free City's unemployment problem. But Polish officials here are worried.

The unemployed number sank by 3,000 in March. The big factor in this was said to be volunteer enlistments of Germans, who are citizens of the Free City, in Hitler's army and labor service.

This is what worries the Poles. They fear that Danzig will become closer to the Reich through the training received by Danzigers in Germany.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

CLAUDE E. JACOB

New York, May 22 (AP)—A quiet but steady demand for leading utilities and industrials provided a recovery stimulus for today's stock market.

The continuance of satisfactory economic news, brokers said, was an inspiring influence. Near the start of the final hour, gains of fractions to 2 or more points predominated.

Among the principal advances were those of consolidated Edison, American Water Works, North American, Western Union, American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Chrysler, International Harvester, J. I. Case, John-Manville, Sears Roebuck, All-Job Chemical, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Phillips Petroleum, Phillips Morris, National Lead and Zenith Radio.

The late tone was firm, transfers approximated 650,000 shares.

Young Is Mentioned

New York, May 22 (AP)—The Evening Post said today "a move to make Owen D. Young the Democratic nominee for governor this fall was quietly under way." It is backed, the Post said, "by some strategists in Tammany and in Wall Street." Young is chairman of the General Electric Company. The newspaper said, would come to an end, should Governor Herbert H. Lehman decide to seek re-election and not retire from active politics. "It was not known," the Post said, "whether Mr. Young had expressed willingness to run."

SEE TRICKY STUFF AT FURNITURE SHOW

Combinations Feature Latest Offerings for Home.

Chicago—Alert manufacturers have devised many new combinations of furniture which will solve the problems of the small home owner and keep his home from looking cluttered with too many pieces. These new and tricky devices made their debut to retail furniture buyers at the American Furniture Mart, home furnishings style center here.

Among these innovations, many of which can now be seen in retail stores, is a combination davenport, cellarette, bookcase, and radio cabinet, made in California Spanish style. It's a piece that's suitable for summer homes with knotty pine background or for regular home or apartment use in town or city. The davenport is upholstered in soft checked material (housman) trimmed in leather. The cellarette is concealed in one end of the davenport, and behind it is a bookcase. The other end opens to a radio cabinet, with storage space behind this. The chairs that go with the davenport have concealed ashtrays and cigarette compartments beneath the arms, eliminating the necessity of resting ashtrays on chair arms.

There's also a new bridge davenport that's a grand utility piece, besides being decorative. The middle front section of the davenport is removable, and can be pushed to the front, a bridge table inserted there—and you're all set for a game of bridge without the necessity of pulling up any extra chairs.

Lamps have long since ceased to be just lamps. They now frequently involve tables, magazine racks, and even small cellarette compartments in their bases. For manufacturers have learned to build things in that long space between floor and shade and thus, without much effort, have managed to find room for an extra shelf—a table—or a place for magazines.

One of the best known manufacturers of medium-priced furniture has devised a sectional bookcase, which comes in three compartments, usable in one continuous piece or in separate parts. This combines bookcase, desk, drawer space for linens, and radio cabinet—all in a beautifully polished natural oak piece—which is most effective.

For the little shop girl who shares a hall bedroom, or for the housewife who likes to do part of her own washing, there's the combination wringer and washboard which retails for just over a dollar. This is a real utility piece for, in the case of housewives, it saves the expense of a laundry bill.

Another interesting combination is the bridge and dining room table. It's an extensible table which folds from the regular bridge size into a dining room table which serves six or eight persons. For bridge, the dining room chairs can, of course, be used.

Explore Syrian Center for Ancient Roman Art

New Haven, Conn.—Three wooden shields, some 16 centuries old, used by the Roman soldiers stationed in Dura, "the Pompeii of the Euphrates," have been uncovered in that ancient city by the Yale expedition under the leadership of Dr. Clark Hopkins.

The shields, of fragile wood, bear paintings sufficiently well preserved to allow accurate reconstructions. They are executed with extraordinary spirit and great skill, and show classical subjects clad in manifestly eastern garb.

Doctor Hopkins terms them "important links in the history of the development of ancient types of art." Doctor Hopkins has announced that funds have been obtained to continue excavations for at least another year in Dura, which "still remains so rich in antiquities that one can scarcely touch the spade to the ground without revealing finds of the utmost historical importance."

Stops Train to Release Animal Caught in Fence

John, Mo.—A dog was caught in a fence and might have died there if it had not been for a friendly engineer of a Frisco railroad train.

C. D. Perry, the engineer, and R. B. Barber, fireman, noticed the dog's plight one day on their run between Carthage and Moett, near here, but were unable to stop because another train was following a short distance behind.

The next day they watched, however, saw the dog still entangled and stopped to release it.

Athlete Commutes Eighty Miles Daily

Salt Lake City—Traveling 80 miles a day by train to attend the University of Utah does not prevent Virgil James, 19-year-old, from being the outstanding player on the varsity basketball squad.

James has proved the sparkling of the Utes during the entire season regardless of the fact that he commutes from his home in Ogden. He tumbles out of bed every morning at 5 a. m. to catch the train to Salt Lake City.

Enlisted in a railroad page because his father, Albert James, is a locomotive engineer for the Union Pacific, the Redskin is found it more economical to live at home.

The two hours he spends on the train are used to study or catch a few extra winks of sleep.

Lyonsville, May 22.—A birthday party in honor of Jane and Jack Hathmaker was held at their home on Sunday afternoon, May 17. Among the children present were Jane and Jack Hathmaker, Kenneth Oakley, Marie Trowbridge, Marjorie, Helen and Clarice Merritt and cousin, of Whitfield. Refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake were served at a very prettily decorated table. Late in the afternoon the guests departed after having spent a very enjoyable time.

Supper Dance

Many students of former years will join with members of this year's class and their friends in an evening of informal gaiety at the Morian Student Council's supper dance to be held at the Governor Clinton Hotel tonight. Dancing will get under way at nine o'clock to the music of Ray Randall's orchestra and will continue until 1:30. At midnight the hotel will serve a buffet supper. Inter-spersed among the dances will be entertainment features of an exceptionally high order.

Addresses Lions

Hiland, May 22.—Interesting happenings during a trip to Russia following the World War were related by Edward Dolph of Newburgh to the 22 members of the Lions Club at the meeting Monday evening at the Elms. During the business meeting presided over by the president, Dr. Victor P. Salvatore, the nominations for officers for the coming year were made: LeGrand Haviland, Jr., president; John P. Wadlin, first vice-president; George E. Dean, second vice-president; Charles Schmidt, third vice-president; Ledyard Ball, secretary; Arthur B. Merritt, treasurer; Mr. Cordt, Hon. tamer; William H. Maynard, tall twister. Plans for the installation are being made for the meeting on June 6 at Broglio's.

In County Granges

Hiland.

Hiland, May 22.—A program made up of readings and recitations with singing by the members present and a guessing contest arranged by the lecturer, Mrs. Louis Gruner, was enjoyed at the meeting of Hiland Grange Tuesday evening. Those taking part were: Richard Schneider, Mrs. Eugenia Sherwood, Louis Gruner, Jr., Mrs. Charles Bell. The questions in the contest were naming the states and those taking part to answer by giving the capital of the state. Lake Katrine Grange extended an invitation to attend their meeting May 25, and those going are planning for a bus load. Mrs. Charles Bell of the social and hospitality committee, announced an anniversary supper on June 4 with chicken broilers as the feature. A memorial meeting for six members who have passed on is to be observed at the meeting on June 2. This is being arranged by Mrs. Charles Bell. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmidt, Mrs. Fred Schmidt and Dr. and Mrs. Victor Salvatore. There were 46 present.

Turck Is Held for Grand Jury Action

Frank Carpino, 16, of 30 Willow street, and Nicholas Turck, 25, of 138 Delaware avenue, were arrested on April 23, on charges of arson in the third degree and the hearings had been adjourned until this morning in police court at which time Turck waived examination and was held to await the action of the grand jury, while the hearing in the Carpino case was set down for next Wednesday in police court.

Both are charged with setting fire to the vacant house on Willow street, owned by the Hutton Company. Attorney Dorr E. Monroe appeared for the district attorney's office in police court today, while Turck was represented by Assemblyman J. Edward Conway, and Attorney Frank Campochiaro appeared for Carpino.

Two Police Court Cases

James Davis, 43, a scissors grinder who claims Vernon Township, N. J., as his home, was arrested about 5:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon on Crown street charged with public intoxication. This morning in police court Judge Culliton sentenced him to three days in jail. About 7 o'clock last night the police department was called to the home of Fred Orr, 267 Hasbrouck avenue, when Orr's wife

Name Special Police For City Park Duty

Chief of Police J. Allan Wood announced today that Marvin S. Whitaker, Walter McDonough, Joseph Heidecamp, Claude Haines and George E. Parslow had been named as special police to serve in the city parks this summer.

The city parks open for the season on Monday. Officer Whitaker will be assigned to Hasbrouck Park; Officers McDonough and Heidecamp to Forsyth Park; Officer Haines to Academy Park, and Officer George E. Parslow to Cornell Park.

Superintendent David Conway of the Board of Public Works has had a force of men busy in the parks cleaning up the grounds and installing the various playground equipment.

The city parks will present a spic and span appearance for the opening on Monday.

Thomas Resigns.

London, May 22 (AP)—J. H. Thomas, Colonial secretary, has resigned from the Baldwin cabinet according to authentic reports in the lobby of the house of commons late today. It was stated the king had accepted his resignation and it would be announced tonight. The reported resignation came as a direct result of the British budget leak scandal. It was the culmination of the 10-day, judicial inquiry in which witnesses mentioned his name and that of his son, Leslie, employee of an insurance, brokerage house.

placed her husband under arrest on a charge of third degree assault. The case was held open for a hearing later.

CROWS NAMED 'PUBLIC ENEMIES'

Formerly designated crows as "public enemies," the latest action taken by the city of New York is to name them "public enemies." The city has named crows, one tagged "Bulldog," with prices on their heads. They hope that the prices offered for the banded birds will start wholesale crow shooting. (Associated Press Photo)

Paterson Silk Sox Will Play Colonials Here Sunday

Joe Minkin, head of one of the largest baseball booking agencies in the east, will accompany the Paterson Silk Sox to Kingston Sunday for their game against the Colonials. He has informed the Colonial management.

Minkin is anxious to see Kingston revived as a baseball center and is coming up here to look over the territory with an eye toward sending a series of crack clubs to oppose the Colonials.

Paterson's famous Silk Sox, one time arch enemies of the old Colonials, will come here with a squad 15 strong. Bob Krawitz, ace hurler, is expected to start against King Kong Shackett, the big gun of the Colonial staff.

Krawitz's latest achievement was a five hit performance against the Holy Rosary Club of Bayonne, N. J., to win 5 to 2. If Krawitz fails to stem the Colonial sluggers, the visitors can use Sheery Bloomfield and Gamaliel.

Bill Schwab will be behind the plate again this Sunday and will call the game at 2:15 sharp.

The Colonials' starting lineup will find Carpenter, Terwilliger, Turk and Niles in the infield; C. Tiano, Lay and Joyce in the outfield. Knight, Davitt and Freleigh will be in reserve with Joe Hoffman behind the plate.

Sunday's game is the second in a series of four or five to be attempted by the Colonials in an effort to determine whether or not Kingston fans will support good baseball on Sunday. Booking Manager Tiano has lined up four attractive opponents for the first month and by that time the locals will have a definite line on the fans' sentiment.

Tickets will be sold on the field for all Colonial games.

K. H. S. Baseball, Golf And Tennis Teams On the Road Saturday

All Kingston High School Athletes will vacate the home town tomorrow, journeying to various parts of the county. The Maroon and White ball tossers take a short trip to Saugerties. The golf squad plays at Catskill in a return match, the tennis team will compete in the DUSO meet at Newburgh and the track team goes to Middletown.

The game at Saugerties last week was halted on account of rain. Charlie Bock, Kingston's ace tosser, will be on the mound while Tommy Malnes or Vince Stoll will be on the receiving end. The battery for Saugerties will include either Bruno or Freleigh pitching and Rinaldi catching.

The golfers, with four wins to their credit, will engage a comparatively weak Catskill combination, over whom they hold a 14 1/2 to 3 1/2 victory. Captain Frank Heltzman will again occupy the number one position, with Barney Murray as second. Bert DeBrosky as third man and Bob Cole as fourth.

Captain Knute Beichert will lead the tennis squad, including Svirsky, Burgher, France, Nekos and Gordon will compete at Newburgh in the DUSO meet. The Newburgh Free Academy racquetballers, who won the DUSO crown in this sport last year, are rated as favorites.

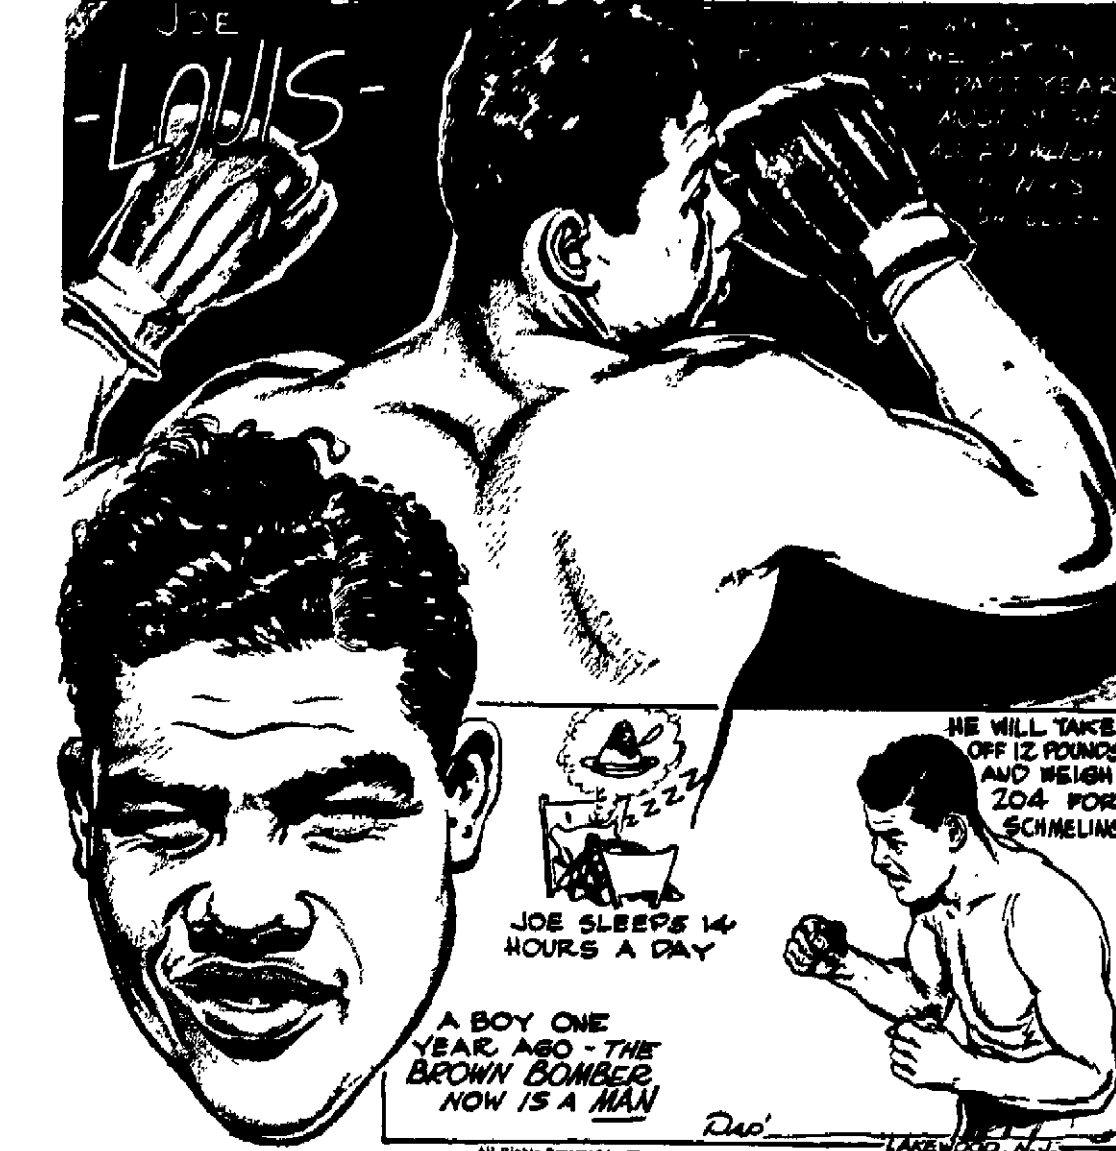

Nine members of the track squad including Bowser, Bushnell, Campbell, Hart, Kraft, Tiano, Von Essen, Weiner and Wilbur will journey to Middletown, competing for DUSO honors.

The Indians, formerly the Wallkill Red Sox, will open their baseball season Sunday, playing the New Windsor A. C. at Benton's Corners.

The Indians, who have been greatly improved by the addition of new players, will play Sunday games at the Benton's Corners diamond, playing twilight games away from home.

Teams wishing games write to Charles Mullen, Wallkill, N. Y.

A Bigger Bomber

Sport Slants

Promoter Mike Jacobs tossed a birthday party—cake and everything—for Joe Louis. It was the Brown Bomber's twenty-second anniversary and Jacobs took advantage of the occasion to offer a preview of Louis before he settled down to the serious task of preparing himself for his bout with Max Schmeling in June.

It was a slightly different Joe Louis who peered off his bathrobe and thumped the big bag while cameras clicked—a bigger Louis in height and he has gained an inch in weight. He tipped the beam at 216 pounds, giving him about a dozen to work on for the next few weeks. He should come into the ring at around 204 for his bout with the German.

Louis weighed 195 pounds for Max Baer, and scaled 212 pounds more when he met Paulino. He has been growing steadily, so he should face Schmeling three or four pounds heavier than he was against the durable Paulino.

More impressive than his physical growth is the change in Louis' manner. He is no longer a boy—he has grown up. The boyishness has disappeared and in its place has come the rugged appearance of a fighting man. He looks more formidable than ever.

One thing Joe hasn't lost is his fondness for sleep. Twelve to 14 hours of the 24 he spends pounding the pillows. Nor has he lost his taste for ice cream. One quart a day is his ration, and with warm weather coming on he is likely to demand even more.

Half a dozen sparring partners have been rounded up for the unenviable task of putting Louis in shape. That is, his managers are starting off with half a dozen knowing full well that they will have to add replacements soon after the Bomber's boxing program gets under way. They figure that Louis will use up from 18 to 20 huskies before he ends the grind of training.

A flock of ring notables crowded Louis' camp at Lakewood, N. J., to wish the Bomber "happy birthday."

Champion Jimmy Braddock, Tony Canzoneri and Tommy Loughran headed the list of fighters present.

Braddock Lucky? Braddock and Louis, who at some later date are likely to meet for the world's championship, posed in a most friendly manner for pictures, causing someone to recall once again that Braddock was indeed lucky to be wearing the purple robes of champion.

"Lucky?" questioned Loughran. "Maybe, to a certain extent, but long ago when Jimmy fought me for the world light heavyweight title I predicted that one day he would be fighting for the heavyweight crown. He was lucky in getting the chance to fight Baer."

"You can hardly blame me for wishing that I and not Braddock had faced Max Baer that night. I him. You will, perhaps, recall the shellacking I gave him in Madison Square Garden a couple of years before he won the title. That's why he never gave me another chance."

Tommy also mentioned that Baer's manager approached him after the fight in an effort to get Loughran to give Baer boxing lessons. Tommy felt that Baer was headed for the top and that some day they might meet again, so he wisely refused.

Home Leaders Score Third Straight Victory, Defeating Berardis 5-3

Many Records Should Be Broken at DUSO Track Meet Saturday

Wilson Field, Middletown, will be the scene of hectic action when the combined Orange county and DUSO track meets get under way Saturday afternoon. For the first time since 1933, when the DUSO track meet was inaugurated, it will be held at Middletown. Newburgh has had the honor during the past three years.

Newburgh Free Academy athletes have won the team honors during the past three years; but this year a powerful, well-balanced Middletown squad is favored to win, as they have scored overwhelming victories over all the opponents during the present season. Kingston, Monticello, Port Jervis and Ellenville will all send representatives to this meet, each presenting one or two outstanding trackmen. Kingston's representatives will include "Heavy" Bowser, shot putting and discus throwing; Bill Bushnell, high jump; Ike Campbell in the mile; Joe Hart in the half mile; Bill Kraft, shot put and discus; Mac Tiano in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, relay and broad jump; Bill Von Essen in the relay and broad jump; Mike Weiner for the 100 and 220 yard dashes, relay and high jump, and Captain Harry Wilber for the 440 and relay.

Of the 13 DUSO field day events Newburgh at present holds nine records, Monticello three and Middletown one. Six of the records were made in 1933.

DUSO Records (1933-'35 Inclusive) 100 yd.—Van Scoy, Newburgh, 1933, 10.2. 220 yd.—Wynne, Newburgh, 1933, 23.4. 440 yd.—Albionese, Monticello, 1935, 53.6. 880 yd.—Mulvey, Monticello, 1934, 2:05.8. Mile—Schmid, Newburgh, 1934, 4:41.4. 220 hurdles—Redden, Newburgh, 1935, 27.7. 880 relay—(Van Scoy-Early-Wynne-Arnold) Newburgh, 1933, 3:54.4. High jump—Van Tienan, Newburgh, 1933, 5 feet 6 inches. Pole vault—Moskowitz, Monticello, 1932, 11 feet 1 1/2 inch. Broad jump—Van Scoy, Newburgh, 1934, 21 feet 1 1/2 inch. Discus—Nania, Middletown, 1935, 181 feet 5 inches. Shotput—Klein, Newburgh, 1935, 45 feet 2 1/2 inches. Javelin—Chumas, Newburgh, 1932, 150 feet 3 inches.

Van Scoy's dash mark of 10.2 has already been bettered by Dayton, Va. and Nelson of Middletown, all of whom have been clocked at 10 flat, while Oliver of Port Jervis sped across this distance in 10.2 to equal the record. A new record for the 100 is predicted.

The 220 mark, held by Wynne of Newburgh at 23.4 has been lessened to an even 23 seconds by Weiner of Kingston and Dayton of Middletown. Either one is expected to break the tape for a new record.

The time of 53.6 in the 440 set by Albionese of Monticello has been equaled by Reed of Port Jervis. Joe Hart of Kingston has repeated Mulvey's time of 2:05.8 for the 880 and is picked as the favorite to cop honors in this event and set a new record if he is given stiff competition.

Of all the events, the high jump mark of 5 feet 6 inches has the best chance of being snapped. Hugh Clarke of Newburgh, a former Kingston boy, cleared the bar at two inches higher at the Newburgh relays last week and is rated as a sure bet to repeat this performance tomorrow. Brower of Middletown and both Pelton and Crawford of Monticello have equaled the record.

The broad jumping mark set by Van Scoy at 21 feet 1 1/2 inch, has been advanced by both Darton of Middletown and Wolf of Monticello, who are expected to crack the old mark officially tomorrow.

Nania, Middletown's shot heaver, will be out to surpass Klein's distance of 45 feet 2 inches, which he has already increased by three inches.

In his long career, Sarazen probably has never played a more orthodox round of golf than this. He was in the trees, in the sand, in the rough, everywhere except where he should have been. Still his recoveries were so remarkable and his putting so good that he could not fall.

For the last few months, Gene has been concentrating on hitting the ball with his iron on the lowest possible trajectory and still making it settle quickly on the greens. At Baltusrol and in the British Open at Hoylake he will want to keep the ball out of the wind. So he experimented yesterday, and with little success. He kept the ball down all right, but he was constant in pushing the shots to the right, of missing them to the left. Three times on the first nine he was in the sand because of this, but every time he either exploded out dead to the pin or rammed in a long putt.

At the ninth green he had a difficult down-hill, side-hill putt. He sent it rolling and it trickled in. This put him out in 34, one under par. Again on the tenth hole he had a 14 footer for a birdie and, knowing that he needed it to take the lead, heaved it right into the back of the cup.

Henry Picard, the quiet defending champion, was one shot back of Sarazen with a 36, and one shot further away were three dangerous players, Craig Wood, New York, Byron Nelson, Ridgewood, N. J., and Paul Hanes, White Plains.

Willie MacFarlane, the 1925 Open champion, who won the Met title two years ago, held third place with a 32, and back of him with 33s were Z. T. Hartman, Larchmont, Henry Clay, Flushing, N. Y., and Larchmont, Ted Turner, Pine Valley, Norman Hansen, White Plains, Frank Moore, Scarsdale, and Joe Sweetser, Mount Vernon, the low amateur.

Well, they did it again—or should it be, he did it again? Anyhow, the Grunewald Home Leaders, with veteran Jack Dodge controlling the ball in line shape and his teammates playing almost errorless ball (they had but one charged against them) and coming through with nine hits off of Julius Chick, defeated the Berardi A. C. last year's City League champions, 5 to 3 at Athletic Field Thursday night.

And the Grunewalds stay at the top of the heap in the league race, only more so, with three straight victories to their credit and no losses to date.

Before going further, it seems to be agreed that a lot of credit should be given to Herb Van Deusen for the game he put up last night. Herb covered third in fine style, with one put out and seven assists to his credit and no errors. In addition he made three hits in three times at bat, two of them doubles. That's good enough ball playing for anybody.

The Berardi did all their scoring in the sixth inning. Zandary and Tiano were safe on singles, with one out. Dodge passed J. Berardi, filling the bases. The plan was for a double play, but the wires got crossed and no one was on deck between first and second when Chick's single went slipping through and Zandary and Tiano scored. J. Berardi scored as his brother was out at first. Van Deusen took DeCicco's drive for the third out. The Berardi called the bases in the fourth, but Dodge got Johnny Berardi on three strikes for the third out.

Van Deusen scored for the Home Leaders in the first inning, pounding out a double and coming home on Kelly's single. The winners made three more in the second. An error, felder's choice and Hanley's single filled the bases. Tiano took Lamb's fly to left, but in the throw home got the ball way over Zandary's head and two runs came in. Then Van Deusen came through with another double, scoring the third run of the inning. The Grunewald's other score came in the fourth, on a single by Lamb, Van Deusen and Embree.

One of the happiest men these days, over the showing the Home Leaders are making, is Charley Diers, one of the managers of the team. Charley is particularly set up over the way Jack Dodge's curve and head-work is fooling the boys. Says he isn't surprised, Jack always could pitch, but it's hard to win games if you haven't got the support behind you.

Tagging Major League Bases

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR. Associated Press Sports Writer.

Faint echoes of the thunderous 1934 world series have begun to rumble through the major leagues as the Tigers and Cardinals are showing something like their championship form of two years ago.

The Cards have been running along in front for a couple of weeks but it took a Cay in second place to make them buckle down to work in dead earnest and wallop the Giants 4 to 2 yesterday to regain the lead.

Meanwhile the injury-riddled Detroit team has started the same sort of comeback it made after a poor start last year, turning back the Yankees 10 to 9 and moving into third place with their sixth consecutive victory.

The triumphs of these two old enemies were high spots of the big league program yesterday even though Jimmie Fox's belated tenth home run of the season, Wes Ferrell, John Lanning, the Bees' rookie, and Roy Henshaw turned in some notable pitching; Johnny Whitehead, the White Sox sophomore, and Harry Kelley, the Athletics' freshman, dueling for 14 innings before Kelley cracked and the Pirates wound up a six-run ninth inning rally with a homer by Woody Jensen with two aboard to beat the Phillies 7-4.

Beaten by the Giants yesterday, the Cards had another narrow escape as Paul Dean and Al Smith battled on even terms for eight innings. The ninth, however, spelled the end of New York's nine game winning streak. Smith panned Pepper Martin with two out. Joe Medwick and Johnny Mize singled and Virgil Davis doubled to bring in three runs. The Giants got one back on singles by Sam Leslie, Mel Ott and Hank Leibert, but Dean retired Gus Mancuso and pinch hitter Bill Terry to end the game.

The Tigers turned on the heat in the last inning, just as they did last year, and won out in the last inning after tying the count with three runs in the eighth. Singles by Gerald Walker, Charley Gehring and George Gossin, the world series hero, produced the winning rally.

Wes Ferrell, knocked out in two innings Wednesday, went right back at the Braves and hurled his ball to win 6-2. Fox's homer, coming with two aboard in the third, gave him invaluable aid. Lanning, up from Knoxville, pitched a four hitter for the other Boston team and came out ahead of the Red and Lee Stine, 3-2 when Al Lopez walked and Bill Frenkel doubled him home in the ninth. Henshaw, the Cub midge, outted the Dodgers into submission with seven hits, winning 4-0 with the aid of Gabby Hartnett's clutch drive.

Whitehead, who was out of the game last year when Kelley had been this spring, came close to being the day's hard luck victim. He didn't allow an error run but his mates made five errors behind him. He finally won out 3-2 in the 14th when Kelley gave three straight walks and then a single to Luke Appling.

The Senators found their expert-sewer of outfielding Cecil Travis from short in right field a successful one when the youngsters contributed a home run to a 7-4 triumph over Cleveland.

Business Men Will Discuss the Use of Parking Meters Here

Monday morning at 10 o'clock the Uptown Business Men's Association will hold a meeting to discuss the use of parking meters in the uptown section. President Matthew H. Herzog, of the association, said this morning.

The meeting has been called to consider the trial installation of the Park-o-Meter system at the suggestion of Mayor Conrad J. Heiselein, who in a letter to the Business Men's Association asked for this organization's opinion.

It is understood that the trial of the Park-o-Meters would be conducted on Main street. If results are satisfactory, the meters probably will be installed in other sections of the business district, to see how they work there.

Park-o-Meters are used in some of the larger cities of the south, and are said to be very satisfactory in helping to solve the traffic and parking problems. Poughkeepsie is to give the meters a trial, as is Albany and several other upstate communities. New York city has ordered 1,500 of them, it is said.

Chief of Police J. Allan Wood, of the Kingston police department, is vitally interested in a trial for the meters, stating that they probably would relieve the under-manned law enforcement group of activities in connection with parking uptown that puts a drain on the police department budget.

BUSHNELLVILLE. May 22.—Mrs. Nash Edridge and her mother have arrived at their summer home.

The frost did plenty of damage in the valley this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Dunham are expected home soon from Connecticut, where he has been employed for a short time.

Mrs. C. G. Stiles, who has taught school here for a number of years, has been hired for another term.

Highland, May 22.—An active business meeting of the Evening Reading Circle was held Monday evening with Mrs. George Hildebrand. The last chapter of the book, "That Other America," was read and discussed by Mrs. A. W. Lent. The circle emptied their treasury by giving the Mission Circle $5; then $5 to be used at Camp Happyland this summer and $4 for use at the Youth conference in the fall when the Pioneer group will attend. This conference is sponsored by North River Presbyterian and conducted by the ministers. The tentative date for the rummage sale was set for October 23. Four volunteers as chairmen, Miss William D. Corwin, telephone 325; Mrs. Edgar Boyce, telephone 223; Mrs. A. W. Lent, telephone 104; and Mrs. C. W. Rathgeb, telephone 37, will take calls and collect any donations during the summer and hold until the date of sale. Mrs. Charles Whitaker extended the invitation for the annual picnic at the Whitaker camp at Watson Hollow for June 25. It is expected that the annual soup making will be done in the fall. It was noted that three members had perfect attendance, Mrs. Matthew Busch, Mrs. Elmer Randall, Mrs. C. W. Rathgeb. Others had missed but one meeting. Present were: Mrs. Charles Whitaker, Mrs. C. W. Rathgeb, Mrs. Louise Scott, Mrs. D. S. Haynes, Mrs. Elmer Randall, Mrs. Gladys Mears, Mrs. Minnie West, Mrs. W. D. Corwin, Mrs. Matthew Busch, Mrs. Heston Woolsey, Mrs. Oliver J. Tillson, Mrs. A. W. Lent, Mrs. George Hildebrand, Mrs. W. D. Bond.

Miss Elizabeth Taber spent the week-end with Miss Barbara Lent and attended the outdoor play at Vassar College with Mrs. A. W. Lent and Miss Barbara Lent.

Theodore Coelho of New York drove up Friday night with his uncle, C. J. Tilson, and remained until Monday.

The 30th anniversary of the Institution of Highland Chapter, 385, O. E. S., will be observed at the regular meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Worthy Master Mrs. Edmund Finley and Worthy Patron Kenneth DuBois will preside.

There were 33 ladies served at the demonstration supper in the Presbyterian Church hall Monday evening. The menu of roast pork, apple sauce, potatoes, carrots, beets, rolls, cake and bread was prepared in a way to conserve heat. The people serving the meal came here from Kingston and were assisted with the contacts made while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Coultant, entertained over the week-end at their camp at Lake Katrine. Mr. and Mrs. John Parks, Highland, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Taylor and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stone of Bethel.

House Will Support All Recommendations Against Dr. Townsend

Washington, May 22 (AP)—Terming Dr. F. E. Townsend's defiance of an investigating committee, "a plain case of contempt," Speaker Byrns forecast today that House would support any committee recommendations against the old age pension leader.

While the investigating group headed by Representative Bell (D. Mo.) planned action to have the House seize Townsend and punish him on a contempt charge, Byrns told reporters:

"I expect the House to take whatever action is recommended by the committee."

As Speaker Byrns spoke, Townsend, in Baltimore, said he'd "rather go to jail" than submit to further congressional investigation of his plan to pay $200 a month to every one past 60.

Amid an uproar the elderly retired doctor boomed the hearing yesterday, protesting against "this communistic dictatorship in Washington" and eschewed headquarters in a Baltimore hotel.

(Today the London Daily Herald stated "Lopez" actually was one Henry Lawrence, erstwhile music hall musician. The newspaper said Lawrence was questioned at length yesterday at the war office concerning his relations with the Italian Embassy.)

A previous Italian protest, containing specific allegations that the dumdums were made by British firms, was withdrawn from Geneva last week.

Today's communication stated: "There is a chain of uncontroversial evidence that dumdum bullets have been systematically employed by Ethiopian soldiers."

"This could not have been unknown to the Ethiopian commanders and the Ethiopian government, which therefore should bear the responsibility."

Local Grape Crop Damaged by Frosts

Recent frosts have damaged the local grape crop in many sections of the county, according to reports received by Albert Kurdt, manager of the Ulster County Farm Bureau. The damage to grapes was particularly bad in the New Paltz and Modena section of the county. Apparently in the Hudson river valley the crop was not damaged, the principal damage being in the open country back from the river.

Beside injuring the grape crop early tomatoes and other vegetables were damaged severely by the frost. The damage by frost was most severe in the rather open country.

Reports of damage by hail in several sections of the county have also been received. Sour cherries were also damaged in streaks by the cold weather at blossom time with some sections of the cherry belt reporting quite a severe loss. In other sections the crop escaped and no damage was reported.

Farley Visits Upstate Leaders
Syracuse, N. Y., May 22 (AP)—An appeal for non-partisan support of the New Deal's social security program was made by Postmaster General James A. Farley in an address here following a swift pre-campaign call on upstate New York party leaders.

Farley's visit stirred anew the talk of gubernatorial candidates that began when Governor Lehman announced he would not be a candidate for re-election of a third term. He met all mention of prospective candidates, however, with the flat statement "It's too soon to tell."

Blood Test Law
Albany, N. Y., May 22 (AP)—The Equivocal bill providing for blood grouping tests of a mother, her child and any defendant who is accused of being the father, became a law today under Governor Lehman's signature. Proponents of the measure claimed such tests could disprove parentage. They did not claim the tests could prove a man to be a parent. Results under the new law may be received in evidence only when the exclusion of a defendant as a father is definitely established.

New Federal Drive
Washington, May 22 (AP)—A new campaign against bootleggers and liquor tax evaders was planned today by treasury officials. A nation-wide drive by 4,500 officers of the Internal Revenue Bureau was expected to be in full swing before the end of next month. Treasury spokesmen said the addition of 4,500 would permit not only a tightening up against law violators, but would also provide a better check on beverage manufacturers and dealers.

House Will Support All Recommendations Against Dr. Townsend

Washington, May 22 (AP)—Terming Dr. F. E. Townsend's defiance of an investigating committee, "a plain case of contempt," Speaker Byrns forecast today that House would support any committee recommendations against the old age pension leader.

While the investigating group headed by Representative Bell (D. Mo.) planned action to have the House seize Townsend and punish him on a contempt charge, Byrns told reporters:

"I expect the House to take whatever action is recommended by the committee."

As Speaker Byrns spoke, Townsend, in Baltimore, said he'd "rather go to jail" than submit to further congressional investigation of his plan to pay $200 a month to every one past 60.

Amid an uproar the elderly retired doctor boomed the hearing yesterday, protesting against "this communistic dictatorship in Washington" and eschewed headquarters in a Baltimore hotel.

British To Mobilize In Event Of War

mons that similar evidence of British-made dumdum bullets was "fabricated" by one "Col. Pedro Lopez."

(He said the British government had warned Italy of "Lopez," but that his relations with the Italian Embassy in London had continued nevertheless.)

(Today the London Daily Herald stated "Lopez" actually was one Henry Lawrence, erstwhile music hall musician. The newspaper said Lawrence was questioned at length yesterday at the war office concerning his relations with the Italian Embassy.)

A previous Italian protest, containing specific allegations that the dumdums were made by British firms, was withdrawn from Geneva last week.

Today's communication stated: "There is a chain of uncontroversial evidence that dumdum bullets have been systematically employed by Ethiopian soldiers."

"This could not have been unknown to the Ethiopian commanders and the Ethiopian government, which therefore should bear the responsibility."

Local Grape Crop Damaged by Frosts

Recent frosts have damaged the local grape crop in many sections of the county, according to reports received by Albert Kurdt, manager of the Ulster County Farm Bureau. The damage to grapes was particularly bad in the New Paltz and Modena section of the county. Apparently in the Hudson river valley the crop was not damaged, the principal damage being in the open country back from the river.

Beside injuring the grape crop early tomatoes and other vegetables were damaged severely by the frost. The damage by frost was most severe in the rather open country.

Reports of damage by hail in several sections of the county have also been received. Sour cherries were also damaged in streaks by the cold weather at blossom time with some sections of the cherry belt reporting quite a severe loss. In other sections the crop escaped and no damage was reported.

Farley Visits Upstate Leaders
Syracuse, N. Y., May 22 (AP)—An appeal for non-partisan support of the New Deal's social security program was made by Postmaster General James A. Farley in an address here following a swift pre-campaign call on upstate New York party leaders.

Farley's visit stirred anew the talk of gubernatorial candidates that began when Governor Lehman announced he would not be a candidate for re-election of a third term. He met all mention of prospective candidates, however, with the flat statement "It's too soon to tell."

The Blue Sox A. C. will play the H. Studt S. C. at Hardbrook Park tonight at 6:30 on ball field No. 2.

Blood Test Law
Albany, N. Y., May 22 (AP)—The Equivocal bill providing for blood grouping tests of a mother, her child and any defendant who is accused of being the father, became a law today under Governor Lehman's signature. Proponents of the measure claimed such tests could disprove parentage. They did not claim the tests could prove a man to be a parent. Results under the new law may be received in evidence only when the exclusion of a defendant as a father is definitely established.

New Federal Drive
Washington, May 22 (AP)—A new campaign against bootleggers and liquor tax evaders was planned today by treasury officials. A nation-wide drive by 4,500 officers of the Internal Revenue Bureau was expected to be in full swing before the end of next month. Treasury spokesmen said the addition of 4,500 would permit not only a tightening up against law violators, but would also provide a better check on beverage manufacturers and dealers.

James Roosevelt Talks Wild West If You Believe London Journals

By ROGER D. GREENE

London (AP)—Harvard-educated James Roosevelt, eldest son of the president, picked up a new accent in 24 hours of his arrival in London—but not a British accent.

"I am, sunny-smiling American, a fastidious Back Bay Bostonian, found that his interview with British journalists came out in the phraseology of an old-West cowboy."

"Oh!" he was quoted as saying, "asked what people in the States thought about the voyage of the giant new liner, Mary. 'I reckon I guess half the good old U. S. A. is over here to nail back on'."

A typical example of this deathless suffragette appeared recently in a London newspaper—a cartoon depicting a "typical" American, clad in flaring plus-fours and a ten-gallon hat, standing in front of the English Speaking Union headquarters in London.

"Say!" he addresses the high-chinned British doorman. "We guys kinda blab the same lingo, huh, pardner?"

Coincidentally, the humorous magazine Punch coined its readers with an example of what happens when an English vicar attempts to pronounce an American song title: "You can't do that the-ah he-ah."

"Why Meow Yow Talk!" Americans puzzled to hear their own self-description of their nationality come out as "Amur-rican", as jibingly repeated by Britons, may wonder who speaks the "King's English" when they overhear some such conversation as this between two London debutantes:

"Oh, I dent nyow, relly. I sep-pose seh."

"Relly?"
"Um. Bet dent breathe it to a sewi."
Ambassador Robert W. Bingham, after three years' residence in England, has told London banquet audiences that "there is no American accent; the educated speech of both countries is the same"—but James Roosevelt, with a brand-new cowboy accent bestowed on him by the British press, may feel inclined to retort: "Wa-al, pardner, you shore are wrong!"

Plan Christmas Seal Campaign

New York, May 22—Plans for the 13th annual Christmas Seal Campaign conducted by the State and Local Committees on Tuberculosis and Public Health of the State Charities Aid Association were discussed at the final luncheon session of the association held at the Hotel Biltmore in this city Thursday, when delegates to the convention heard Mrs. Marie Warner Anderson, State Campaign Director, predict an increased public acceptance of the Christmas Seal in 1936.

Meeting in a three-day convention the delegates had heard prominent leaders in the field of public health and preventive medicine describe the successful work of the state and local health authorities and citizen organizations in meeting the peril of tuberculosis until that disease is no longer the major cause of premature death and unnecessary sickness. Today's session was devoted to the outlining of a bigger Christmas seal drive in communities throughout the State to be undertaken from Thanksgiving to New Year.

Making his 12th appearance on the Christmas seal stamp, Santa Claus brought up to date, will constitute the background of the anti-tuberculosis stamp. Wearing an expression of joy in satisfaction of the successful work of the health officials in the war on tuberculosis, Santa Claus will smile his way into the hearts of many and make new friends for the victims of tuberculosis. To collectors of Christmas seal stamps this year's edition will receive a joyful welcome.

Greetings from the National Christmas Seal Service were brought to the conference by Charles L. Newcomb, seal sale director of the National Tuberculosis Association.

MT. TREMPER
Mt. Tremper, May 22.—Frank O'Donnell, Mt. Tremper contractor, is constructing a modern summer home for Dr. John C. Grass at Woodland.

Wayside Inn and Three Star Camp are open for the season and report fairly good business.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Handley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schoonmaker and daughter, Charlotte, of Kingston, called at Wayside Inn on Sunday.
Week-end fishing in local streams is fairly good but would be much improved if water from the Schoharie was not allowed to enter the Esopus later than Friday.

Meaning of "Points"
The term four point, in referring to a blanket, means weight. A point is a Canadian unit of weight slightly more than a pound, a writer relates to the Indianapolis News. A Hudson's Bay blanket is a very heavy all-woolen blanket used by trappers and traders—like an army blanket, except that it is even heavier. It may be gray, tan or patterned, but a favorite color is red. Other trapper point blankets come in white with colored striped borders.

500 Viking Graves Yield Relics
Thirty of the some 500 Viking graves in Winklausten, near the popular Baltic sea resort Granz, were opened by the authorities of the Prussia museum of Kensington and yielded historically valuable finds. Among these are scales and weights, indicating that the Swedish Viking settlement included merchants. The graves date from the Ninth and Tenth centuries.

TO FIGHT FOR CHILDREN

Declared sane by a court at Santa Ana, Calif., Mrs. Lydia F. Simpson, wife of Dr. G. G. Simpson of New York, has announced she will start a court fight to regain custody of her children. She is shown with her daughter, Patricia, 9, after the verdict. Her other children are in Washington. (Associated Press Photo)

Wiltwyck Chapter D.A.R., Meeting Was Held Here Thursday

The annual meeting of Wiltwyck Chapter, D. A. R., was held at the Chapter House on Thursday afternoon, May 21, and in addition to the election of officers for the coming year, reports from the recent Continental Congress were heard.

There were several announcements.

The regent, Miss Louise van Hovenberg, presided.

The report from the nominating committee, Mrs. Virgil Van Wageningen, chairman, offered the following names for election for these specified offices:

Regent, Mrs. William R. Anderson.
First vice-regent, Mrs. Charles Terwilliger.

Second vice-regent, Mrs. William MacGregor Mills.
Recording secretary, Mrs. Maurice Safford.

Corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. Dean Hays.

Treasurer, Mrs. James Scott.
Registrar, Mrs. Harris Ingles.

Historian, Mrs. William Hancock.
Chaplain, Mrs. James Duncan Lawrence.

Local board, Miss Louise van Hovenberg, Mrs. Hiram Whitney, Mrs. Lancelot Phelps, Miss Sarah Hasbrouck.

All the foregoing officers were unanimously elected.

The members of the Chapter were reminded of the Memorial Day service at the First Reformed Church on Sunday, May 24, at 10:45 o'clock, and also of the Memorial Day exercises at the Municipal Auditorium on Sunday, May 31.

Announcement was made of the Hudson Valley Council which will meet at Goshen on June 8. Those wishing to make reservations are asked to communicate with Mrs. Hays.

A card party will be held on June 12th at the Chapter House.

Mrs. Charles Terwilliger, alternate to the regent, told of the opening reception of the Continental Congress itself. She especially noted the predominance of spirituality as a keynote of the congress with a stressing of right living and character building in and for our young people.

Mrs. Childsey was the delegate and her alternate was Mrs. Phelps.

As Mrs. Childsey was unable to be present, Mrs. Terwilliger read her very vivid, comprehensive and valuable report of the congress.

The grand opening with all of its dignity and beauty was described admirably.

The president general, Mrs. William Becker, took as the subject of her address, "Have you the vision?" Good citizenship and character building were two outstanding themes of her splendid address. She especially urged the organization of our American youth into groups that will hold their interest and loyal support before they are captured by the communistic Student Union that is out to make as many converts as possible.

One of the outstanding addresses of the congress was given by Dr. Gus A. Dyer, professor of economics at Vanderbilt University, who told the D. A. R. that the United States had been saved by the Supreme Court; "Unaided by its coordinate branches of the government, the Supreme Court has rescued the United States from chaos," said Dr. Dyer. He ardently urged the study and closest adherence to the Constitution of the United States.

March Most Popular
The Duke says: The most popular musical composition published in America today is undoubtedly "The Stars and Stripes Forever," by John Philip Sousa. Certain pieces flare out with the great light of a meteor, and then disappear just as quickly, but if we are to take the number of public performances of Mr. Sousa's work during a decade and compare this with the hearings of any other work during the same period it will be found that this marvelous patriotic march is heard more than any other composition.

Celebrates Spring
Eisenbach, Germany, famed to visitors of Wartburg castle, where Luther retired under the pseudonym of "Junker Georg" to translate the Bible into German, celebrates the coming of spring with a vengeance. After welcoming the new season with a procession, the children end their fête by burning an effigy of winter.

Giant Water Bug
The giant water bug is rapacious, feeding greedily on other insects and small fish. Like other water bugs, they fly readily from pond to pond, and are frequently attracted to light. This is especially the case where electric lights are used. With many of them the female fastens her eggs on the top of the back of the male with a thin layer of waterproof glue, which she secretes for this purpose.

When we have to draft candidates, we seldom have any difficulty with draft resistors.

Mrs. Bartholomew Leads in Fight for Son

Los Angeles, May 22 (AP)—Mrs. Lillian Bartholomew was two points up on her sister-in-law today in their legal tug-of-war for custody of 12-year-old Freddie Bartholomew, film actor.

In addition she had the hint of Superior Judge Harry Archbald that he is considering giving her talented son back to her unless it could be shown she was not a fit mother.

The mother, who is trying to wrest guardianship of Freddie from the boy's aunt, Miss Mylicent Bartholomew, won her second point yesterday when Superior Judge Robert R. Kennedy refused to dismiss her suit demanding an accounting of the child actor's earnings.

The mother's first and major victory came last Wednesday when Judge Archbald denied Miss Bartholomew's motion to dismiss her guardianship petition.

In denying the motion, the court indicated it favored restoring the boy to his mother and ordered presentation of testimony to show whether Mrs. Bartholomew was a good mother and fit to rear the boy.

Judge Archbald is expected to announce his decision next Monday.

Albany Pageant Spurs Safety Drive Today

Albany, N. Y., May 22 (AP)—"Old Man Carelessness" was taken for a ride today in a city-sponsored pageant intended to make the public "safety conscious."

More than 200 policemen and firemen and 1,000 school children, Boy Scouts, and Legionnaires participated in the demonstration. Arrangements were made to handle thousands of spectators, including Governor Herbert H. Lehman and other state officials. A description of the pageant was broadcast over a nationwide hookup (NB).

The large field at Bleecker Stadium, recently erected by the city, was laid out in a maze of cross streets over which "Old Man Carelessness" speeded to his doom, ignoring a dozen traffic signals erected on the grounds.

A grim feature of the pageant was a parade of school children representing last year's traffic victims in the city. Twenty-three dressed in black represented those killed, while nearly a thousand in red depicted the number injured.

HOUR OF CONFIRMATION AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

The confirmation service at St. John's Episcopal Church on Sunday, May 24, when Bishop Suffragan Charles K. Gilbert will confirm a class of 27 candidates and preach, will be 10:45 a. m.

Modern Quilters Will Love This One

PATTERN 5195

The Dutch Windmill! What a pretty picture this quilt recalls! It will be an effective "draw up" for any bed room as it is in the original design in which it originated. Modern quilters will love the carefully designed with its two materials—a dark and light—alternated in the two pattern pieces.

In pattern 5195 you will find the Dutch Windmill, an illustration for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with a large "check" diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or note (cash preferred) to The Kingston Daily Freeman, 125 N. 3rd St., Kingston, N. Y. 121-15th Street, New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS and PATTERN NUMBER.

WEST SHOKAN

West Shokan, May 22.—The regular Wednesday meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society provided a busy and enjoyable day for all present.
The work program consisted of completing one quilt and partly finishing another. There is one more quilt waiting to be done, which will probably wind up the spring work program. A savory hot dinner was served by the president, Mrs. Nettie Jones, and Mrs. Edward Avery. The menu consisted of creamed potatoes, salmon, white and brown bread, also home baked wheat bread, cabbage salad, carrot marmalade, custard, plum and raspberry preserves, cheese, cake, tea and milk. The dining table was decorated with a beautiful bouquet of pink and white carnations presented to the Aid by Judge Lester S. Davis. The thoughtful favor was greatly enjoyed and full appreciation was expressed to Mr. Davis by the members. Present were: President Mrs. Nettie Jones, Mrs. Ernest Eckert, Mrs. Idella
North, Mrs. Roy Van Demark, Mrs.
James Burgher, Mrs. Edward Avery,
Mrs. Marshall Roosa, Mrs. Charles Richter, Mrs. Fannie Bolce, Mrs.
Francis Bell, Mrs. John Bell,
Chase Davis, Mrs. Mary Moore, president of the Samsonville Ladies' Aid, and Sylvester Jones. The president announced that Wednesday another meeting will be held, also that some of the ladies will meet quitting evening for the purpose of quilting. Visitors are always cordially welcome and next week's gathering may be final for the season.

Homer Davis of Kingston recently spent a week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Idella North, and family, of Watson Hollow road.

Donald Bishop and Cornelia Davis of West Shokan Heights were entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Judge and Mrs. Henry Winchell, of Sunny Cliff Farm.
Mr. and Mrs. Greelan Bessondy and son, Julius, of Long Island City, spent the week-end at Maple Dell Farm.

Ray Palen of Broadhead was a Kingston visitor on Thursday.
St. Clair Barnes of Malby Hollow Road, enjoyed an early morning trip to Broadhead Heights with Wilson

ing.

Mrs. Addie Kelder of West Shokan Heights is enjoying a visit with friends in Walden, Orange county.
Aarteen Van Wakenen of Kingston visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Winnie and family at Cold Brook on Sunday. He also called on Donald Bishop at West Shokan Heights.

The hustling Boiceville lumbermen, Charles Duloft and Edward Every, have supplied several thousand feet of lumber for re-planking the Cold Brook bridge spanning the Esopus creek. The bridge was replanked previously in 1926 and 1917, at which time the plank was supplied principally by the Davis and Hesley saw mill at West Shokan.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon M. Giles of Kingston were pleasant Sunday afternoon callers at the home of Judge and Mrs. Henry Winchell at Sunny Cliff Farm. Mr. Winchell and Mr.
Giles recently served on a grand jury panel, at which time the former was chosen foreman and the latter clerk.

Pete Gardner, the veteran mail carrier and his genial lady assistant motored to Kingston Tuesday afternoon after the latter had covered the Mt. Tremper-Broadhead route.
Since last week's freeze-up of early planted gardens, a renewed demand has developed for tomato plants.
These at present may be obtained locally at Colange's store.

Joseph Cosgrove, 12-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Cosgrove of Broadhead, is now showing a well defined general improvement in his condition. His critical injury, a fractured skull, was sustained nearly three weeks ago when in some unaccounted for manner the lad fell backward down the cellar steps, striking his head on the cement floor.

Contractor Fred Brown and Donald Bishop wired the Peterson residence at Acorn Hill. They started the job on Tuesday.

Roy Palen of Broadhead made a trip to Kingston Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of renewing his chauffeur's license.

Charles H. Weldner of Locust Hill
Farm called on Donald Bishop,
Thursday evening.

Mrs. Wilson Terwilliger accompanied her husband over the milk hauling route, Wednesday morning.

Irrving Bell of Broadhead Heights accompanied Truckman Lauren Hes-ley on a coal hauling trip to Pennsylvania Tuesday night.

William Shultz of Olive Bridge did some interior carpenter work for Abram Constable on Wednesday evening.

Curt Hausen has been employed with pre-opening painting and decorating at Watson Hollow Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Conno, who returned several weeks ago from their winter's sojourn in Florida, have gone to Lake Mohonk for the season.

Members of Phoenicia Post, American Legion, are expected to make their annual visitation to the Shandaken and Olive cemeteries on Sunday where flags will be placed upon the soldier dead of America's wars.

Donald Bishop, with Fred Brown, electrical contractor, of Stone Ridge, was employed in Kingston, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Mary Moore of Samsonville was a caller at West Shokan Heights, after attending the Ladies' Aid quilting on Wednesday.

Upward of 40 friends and neighbors gathered Saturday evening at Roy Van Demark's hall, where a birch-bark party was tendered Mrs.
Ray Wean. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed and Mrs. Wean was the recipient of a variety of pleasing gifts.

Frank Davis and party of Kingston, enjoyed a successful trout fishing trip at Watson Hollow on Saturday.

Miss Catherine Roe of West Shokan Heights, is not yet recovered sufficiently from her ivy poisoning infection to resume attendance at Kingston High School.

Foreman Nathan Eckert, who is employed on the Vly road WPA job, was a caller here Tuesday afternoon.

Judge and Mrs. Henry Winchell of Sunny Cliff Farm, were out-of-town callers Tuesday afternoon.

Charles Fred and Pete Crawford of Olive Bridge made a fishing trip to Peekamoose Saturday afternoon.

Many people report having taken miserable colds due to the suddenly changing weather.

E. C. Davis was a caller in Phoenicia Tuesday afternoon.

Tuesday's showers brought another quick change to chilly weather.
The Ladies' Aid quilting held at the Baptist Church Wednesday, was customarily successful and well enjoyed socially.

Donald Bishop called on his friend
Charles H. Weldner at Locust Hill
Farm, on Tuesday evening.

Several out of town guests were entertained over the week-end at Maple Dell Farm.

Mrs. Jane Ann Burgher is reported improving nicely, under the care of Dr. Joseph Justin Cosgrove of Broad-head.

A local death of thirteen years ago, occurred on May 16, 1923. It was that of Mrs. William N. Simpson with pneumonia, after a three day's illness.

Reich War Ministry Starts Detailed National Inventory

These wage-earning women, sewing gas masks in a German factory, are typical of the effort which the entire nation is being coached to make as preparation for a possible war which would tax every resource of the Reich.

By M. K. WHITELEATHER

Berlin (AP)—Side by side with rearmament, Germany is pointing her economic and social forces toward the next war.

A peace-time plan, untried on such a vast scale, has been sketched and an office created in the war ministry to carry it through.

The idea is called "Wehrwirtschaft." It is designed to gear the entire nation to support the fighting forces by closely co-ordinating and channeling all phases of life.

It calls for a long reach into every nook and cranny of the nation's cupboard.

Appeals reminiscent of war days are being made to housewives. They are being asked to organize their homes to such mathematical precision that waste will be banished.

One typical campaign requests that empty toothpaste tubes be saved, so the metal can be re-used.

This preparation for the next war, which German military men say probably will be a "totalitarian war"— or one wherein every able bodied person and everything the nation possesses will be utilized, constitutes "Wehrwirtschaft."

Army Man Lists Duties
The fundamentals as described by Major Kurt Hesse in the "Military Science Review" published by the ministry of war, are these:

(1)—The spiritual and mental preparation of all those who have to do with industry and business. This means, says Major Hesse, the mobilizing of men to the idea of sacrifice in the interest of the public good and the renunciation of some of life's necessities during war time. This task can be fulfilled only if public servants, who are responsible for economic preparedness, have the support of all, and especially of the leaders of business.

(2)—Statistical preparation of the possibilities and necessities during war. One of the characteristics of the situation in 1911, Major Hesse asserts, was the failure to take stock of raw materials on hand and those that would be needed.

(3)—The securing of nourishment through increasing home production, and in building up reserves of cereals, animal foods, fats, oils and meat;
the regulation of imports with an eye to possible war needs and the making of contracts beforehand with foreign importers for war-time supplies; the equipment of agriculture with machinery to replace manual labor, always scarce when farmers go off to fight.

(4)—The management of industrial raw materials by specific plan for war-time so that all domestic materials can be fully used and foreign materials be obtained by contracts.

(5)—The management of energy,
more especially of electricity, by coordinating plants and power lines.

(6)—The organization of industry
by preparing and classifying plants capable of making war materials.
The training of specialists who would be on the job when needed.

(7)—Mobilization of individuals.
This, Major Hesse explains, includes the classification of men as to whether they are to be used immediately in the army or whether they can remain in industry or on the land one year, or longer. It includes a census beforehand of the number of specialists likely to be needed in all lines and the number of men whose tasks can be taken over by women and children. Three million men, Major Hesse says, were taken into the army in 1914. The result was a drop in industrial and agricultural production.

(8)—The regulation of traffic so that it is able to handle military and normal needs simultaneously.

(9)—The organization of trade,
so that exact information is on hand
as to those who deal in raw, half and fully manufactured materials. Major Hesse recalls the importance traded with the smaller neutral countries assumed in World War years.

(10)—War finance preparation either through taxes or borrowing or both and an expenditure organization. Germany went into the war in 1914 financially well armed but poor use was made of the resources,
the Major believes.

(11)—The protection of industry from espionage, sabotage and air raids.

Private Capital Favored
A long-term view of economic preparedness, says Major Hesse, is favored by the army. This runs counter to some tendencies within the nazi party which press for immediate action. By "long-term," the major says, the army means a plan that conserves domestic raw materials, for example, as much as possible during peace time and substitutes foreign materials.

Other authorities on the subject say business and industry must have leadership as strong as the army's in order to work out the scheme.
Private enterprise, however, apparently is to be left untouched as present intentions do not call for nationalization. In the army's view, of any industries, not even munitions factories.

Hobart Senior Alleged Suicide

Geneva, N. Y., May 22 (AP)—Philip

Cooke, Hobart College senior, son of the Rev. Allan W. Cooke, of Cleveland, Ohio, was fatally shot in the Sigma Phi Fraternity house here early today.

Police said young Cooke shot himself.

Fellow students told police he had been "moody" of late.

Cooke was to have been graduated next Monday. He was a cheer leader, member of the Glee Club, Skull and Dagger Society and Kappa Beta Phi Fraternity.

(6)—The organization of industry
by preparing and classifying plants
capable of making war materials.
The training of specialists who would be on the job when needed.

(7)—Mobilization of individuals.
This, Major Hesse explains, includes
the classification of men as to whether they are to be used immediately in the army or whether they can remain in industry or on the land one year, or longer. It includes a census beforehand of the number of specialists likely to be needed in all lines
and the number of men whose tasks
can be taken over by women and children. Three million men, Major Hesse says, were taken into the army in 1914. The result was a drop in industrial and agricultural production.

(8)—The regulation of traffic so that it is able to handle military
and normal needs simultaneously.

(9)—The organization of trade,
so that exact information is on hand
as to those who deal in raw, half
and fully manufactured materials. Major Hesse recalls the importance
traded with the smaller neutral countries assumed in World War years.

(10)—War finance preparation either through taxes or borrowing or both and an expenditure organization. Germany went into the war
in 1914 financially well armed but poor use was made of the resources,
the Major believes.

(11)—The protection of industry
from espionage, sabotage and air
raids.

Power Plants Included
(4)—The management of industrial raw materials by specific plan
for war-time so that all domestic materials can be fully used and foreign materials be obtained by contracts.

(5)—The management of energy,
more especially of electricity, by coordinating plants and power lines.
